FORECLOSURE—MECHANIC'S LIEN.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A judgment for deficiency was recorded on some property in street B, and about one month after I was doing work on some property for the same party in street C, on which I filed a mechanic's lien for labor and material, and now the property with my lien on is about to be foreclosed. I intend to buy it in. Is that judgment to be satisfied before my lien?

Answer.—A judgment is not recorded on property; it is docketed, and the instant it is docketed it becomes a lien upon all real property which the judgment debtor may own in the county where the judgment is docketed, no matter whether it is a "deficiency" judgment or any other kind. The lien of the deficiency judgment on the C street property is prior to your mechanic's lien.—Law Editor.

LANDLORD AND TENANT—REPAIRS.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Would you kindly answer the following question in your paper? If a clause (that the tenant will keep said premises in a good state of repair at his own cost and expense, including all repairs required to the plumbing work, Croton water, and gas pipes, and fixtures belonging thereto, and at the end or other expiration of the term, will deliver up the demised premises in good order and condition, damage by the elements excepted) is inserted in a lease of a store, is the tenant required to keep the plate glass of windows of said premises insured against fire and is he obliged to pay for same?

Answer.—No.—Law Editor.

REAL PROPERTY.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Will you kindly answer the following questions through your valuable paper? (1) What qualifications, if any, are there necessary for a woman to transfer real estate and personal property? (2) Where can I obtain a copy of the "Real Property Law?"

Answer.—(1) Assuming that she owns real and personal property, she must be twenty-one years of age or over, and of sound mind. A married woman can convey her property as freely as if she were single. (2) At any law bookseller's. There are several in New York City. Or, you can buy at this office the new book, "Guide to Buyers and Sellers of Real Estate," which contains the new Real Estate Law that went into effect October 1st; price, in paper 75 cents; in cloth, $1.—Law Editor.

PARTY WALL.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Kindly answer the following: The city takes 50 feet from the street corner to widen street for a boulevard, which leaves 6 feet of a condemned house, the property of the present owner. The owner of condemned property buys in again the houses and at once begins their removal to a site selected elsewhere. These being party walls, in removing his house he weakens side of house remaining, exposes the roof and makes necessary the removal of a large part of the inside wall on that side of the house; and now the question—Who places sidings on the house, as it will encroach on adjoining property the thickness of side wall, and does the owner of house that is remaining bear the cost of repairs to his property from damage done by removing adjoining house, of should the person causing damage be held liable? If convenient I would like a written reply, nevertheless thank you in advance for either.

Answer.—The party removing the condemned house is liable to the owner of the adjoining property for all damage that he may do in the removal. He must leave the adjoining property in as secure a condition as before the removal took place.—Law Editor.

APPRAISAL OF PROPERTY.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

As a subscriber to your paper I take the liberty to ask you how I must proceed in having a piece of property appraised? Are three appraisers sufficient? Also, must they go together in a body to look at the property; also what valuation is to be accepted in case each of the three appraises at different figures?

Answer.—You do not state the purpose for which the appraisement is desired. Ordinarily the opinion of one competent man familiar with the values of real estate would be sufficient. If there are three appraisers it is not necessary that they should go in a body to view the property. If the three appraisers disagree as to the value of the property let the party or parties interested in having the appraisement made take that appraisement which is most satisfactory to him or them.Law Editor.

TRESPASSING CATTLE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

What can a land owner do in a town of Queens county, N. Y., to prevent the nuisance of stray cattle coming upon and injuring his premises, and what provision does the law make for his protection? (1) Must he lead the trespassing cattle to the pound, three miles distant? (2) Or, can he retain them in a pound upon his place? (3) What can he demand before releasing? (4) Should cattle die from eating Paris green upon the premises would he be liable for having sprinkled it upon the lawns?

Answer.—(1, 2 and 3). The provision of the law with regard to trespassing cattle in country towns are to be found in 2 Revised Statutes, 517, sections 1-7, and are as follows: "When any distress shall be made of any beasts doing damage, the person distraining shall keep such beasts in some secure place, other than the public pound, until his damages shall be appraised; and within twenty-four hours after such distress, unless the same was made on Saturday, in which case, before the Tuesday morning thereafter, he shall apply to two fence-viewers of the town, to appraise the damage. Such fence-viewers shall thereupon immediately repair to the place, and view the damage done; * * * The said fence-viewers shall ascertain and certify, under their hands, the amount of such damage, with their fees for their services; * * * within twenty-four hours after the said damages shall be so appraised, unless the amount so ascertained, and the fees of the fence-viewers, shall have been paid, the person making such distress shall cause the beasts distrained to be put in the nearest pound in the same county, if there be one, there to remain until the same be sold as hereinafter directed, or until replevied, according to law, or until the damages so certified, and the fees of the fence-viewers and pound-master be paid, * * * The pound masters of the several cities and pounds of this State shall receive and keep the beasts so delivered to them, in the public pound, and unless the same shall be replevied or discharged, according to law, within sixty days, such pound master shall sell such beasts, or so many of them as shall be necessary, at public vendue, giving forty-eight hours notice of such sale, by advertisement, to be fixed up at such pound, and at the nearest public place. From the proceeds of such sale the pound master may retain sufficient to pay the amount of his fees and his charges for keeping such beasts, and the charges of such sale; and he shall pay to the person impounding such beasts the damages so certified, with the fees of the fence-viewers. * * * Every pound-master with whom any beasts shall be impounded shall discharge such beasts on being paid (1) the amount of damages so certified by the fence-viewers; (2) the fees of the fence-viewers; (3) the fees of the pound-master, with his reasonable charges for feeding such beasts, if fed by him, not exceeding six cents for each beast, for every twenty-four hours." (4) No.—Law Editor.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Wherever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for further particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

NEW YORK.

BRICKS.—No changes of an interesting nature have occurred in the market for Hudson River brick during the past week. Demand has quickened slightly, but there has been no decrease in the supplies in receivers' hands, as arrivals have increased a trifle larger. The number of barges carried over daily have averaged about 35. Prices have held steady; the ordinary grades have sold at from $4.00 to 4.25, and the good to choice grades have ranged from $4.37½ to 4.75, with specials at $5.00. A moderate call has been reported for good pale brick, which have sold at $2.00, but the poorer qualities have moved slowly at $1.50@1.75. For Jersey bricks there has been a steady market. Demand has been light, but as the offerings have been small, prices have been without changes, ranging from $3.75 to $4.25, according to quality.

CEMENT.—The market has been without new or interesting features. A moderate amount of business has been transacted, sufficient to absorb offerings, and values have held steady at 75@80c. for Rosendale. The call for Portland cement has been fairly brisk, both foreign and domestic, and at full values.

GLASS.—Owing to the scarcity of the supply of window glass there has been an advance made on quotations by local jobbers to 60 and 5 to 65 per cent. discount for American, and 60 per cent. discount for foreign. The demand has been fairly good, generally reported as being in excess of the supply, and it is stated that it has been almost impossible to get full assortments of American glass, and that the stocks of foreign have been somewhat broken. No settlement has been arrived at as regards the wage question between manufacturers and employes, but latest advices indicate that they are nearing a settlement on the basis of last year's prices. Plate glass has been in fairly good demand, and additional factories of the Pittsburg Glass Co. are to be put in operation.

IRON AND STEEL.—A fair amount of activity has been reported to the market for pig iron. Quite a number of orders have been received for lots, ranging from 200 tons to 500 tons, for delivery during the next two months, and there have been a few purchases of 1,000 tons or more for delivery during the first half of the new year. The business transacted has been at full market prices. We quote at $12.50@13.00 per ton for No. 1 X foundry, $12.00@12.50 for No. 2 X do., $11.50 @12.00 for No. 2 plain, and $11.00@11.50 for Gray Forge. Demand for old material has been steadily improving and business transacted has been at full values, as holders have been quite firm in their views. We quote at $12.50@13.00 for old iron rails; $11.00@11.50 for No. 1 wrought scrap; $11.00@11.50 for cast scrap; $10.50@11.50 for old carwheels, and $6.00 @9.00 for borings, stove plate, etc. The market for manufactured iron has shown a fairly firm tone. There have been a moderate number of orders placed and full values have been paid. Steel rails have been without changes at $28 f. o. b., at mill.

LATH.—Arrivals during the past week have been fairly large amounting to fully 10,000,000. Demand has not been brisk, but at $1.50 sellers have been able to dispose of their offerings so that at the close the market was fairly well cleaned up, and slightly higher prices were asked, but nothing over $1.50 has been paid in a large way. For carload lots, however, up to $1.60 has been obtained.

LIME.—There has been only a very limited call for Eastern lime, and as arrivals have been moderate, there has been a further increase of supplies in sellers' hands with the result that prices have been lowered 5c. per bbl. to 65c. for common, and 75c. for finishing to attract buyers. St. John lime has also eased off a trifle, and a sale of a cargo was reported at 60c. Buyers of State Jointa are fairly well supplied, and demand has been quiet, but values have held steady at $1; common do has been without changes.

LUMBER.—The interest of the trade has centered largely on the prospects of the spring trade, and it has been generally expected that it will open with a revival of business activity. As a consequence, there has been a healthy undertone to the market as merchants generally have shown a disposition to carry their supplies during the present season, unless they can obtain their prices. Some improvement has been reported in some styles of lumber and for yellow and North Carolina pine business and an advance of about 50c. per thousand has been paid. Reports from the yards state that considering the lateness of the season, a fair volume of business has been transacted.

The strength of the market for Eastern spruce has continued to be quite pronounced. There has been a fairly good call for supplies as the large dealers have been buyers and a number of sales of 250,000 feet have been reported at full market prices. No material increase has been reported in the offerings as shipments have continued limited and advices received from Bangor stated that in that district fully 75 per cent. of the mills ceased operations last Saturday. Of Northern spruce, there has been about 1,500,000 feet offered on the market this week, and the business transacted has been on the basis of $13. State spruce has had a moderate sale and has brought steady values. West Virginia spruce has had a fair call in carload lots at unchanged prices.

A fairly good tone has dominated the market for white pine. No business of importance has been transacted, although in a small way demand has shown some improvement and sales made have been at full market values. Yellow and North Carolina pine have received a moderate amount of attention and buyers, after finding that sellers would not weaken from their advanced views, increased their bids 50c. per M., and several cargoes have been reported sold at the higher figures.

The market for hemlock has not attracted particular attention. Business, in fact, has been quiet, comparatively few inquiries having been received, but as sellers have shown no disposition to hurry business, values have held steady. A steady market has been reported for cypress. Demand has continued light, but there has been no supplies pressing for sale and values have been well maintained. Advices received from Alexandria, Louisiana, stating that the manufacturers of that State had held a meeting and had recommended that prices be advanced slightly, has had a favorable influence.

A general better tone has been apparent in nearly all styles of hardwoods. Demand has not increased to any appreciable extent. Some orders have been received for house trim, but for the manufacturer of furniture, etc., there has been very little wood wanted. Oak both plain and quartered has been taken fairly and poplar has had a moderate call, other styles, however, have been quiet.

The "Northwestern Lumberman" says of northern pine:

All reports indicate preparations for closing the sawing season and getting stocks in shape for the winter. There have been some late sales which show a much improved feeling in the trade since election. At Bay City and Saginaw as much as 15,000,000 feet of lumber has changed hands within a fortnight, one Saginaw dealer taking 3,000,000 of Bay City stock. Sales of 1,500,000 feet of Alpena stock have lately been made, largely of bill stuff. Considerable Menominee stock has changed owners since election. At Duluth the shipping season has about closed, so that sales for eastern shipment have lately been light, but manufacturers at the head of the lakes expect to ship a good deal of stock by rail into the wheat country of northern Minnesota and North Dakota during the winter, since there have been heavy shipments of wheat from those regions of Duluth this fall, at fairly remunerative prices. In this way the amount of unsold lumber left over at the mills will be greatly reduced before spring. Dealers in this city also expect to get in an unusual amount of Wisconsin lumber by rail during the winter, so that there is a prospect that the surplus left over at the mills will be greatly reduced before the opening of navigation and the spring trade gets under full headway.

Prices throughout the white pine field have been advanced since election from 50c. to $1 a thousand. This advance is being realized on sales, and in numerous instances orders at old prices have been rejected. This shows that the market has really hardened at the advance. At Buffalo and Tonawanda an increase of sales is reported, higher prices having been realized. Like conditions prevail throughout the east. Though it is not expected that the volume of trade will be large before early next year, wholesale dealers are confident and satisfied of good business after January. Reports from Mississippi River points are to the effect that the retail yards in tributary territory are bare of lumber, and that any rise of demand will cause a heavy draft on wholesale stocks.

In the woods preparations for logging are going forward. It is likely that more pine will be banked than would have been the case had the election gone wrong, but there is still a determination to restrict the input to what will be needed for running the mills next season, when the new cut is added to the logs left over. This will make logging operations this winter less extensive by nearly or quite one-half than last year.

Yellow Pine.—Present conditions and prospects have greatly improved in the southern pine field. Demand has enlarged and, prices in Arkansas, St. Louis, and Kansas City have been advanced 50c. to $1 a thousand, and it is expected that this advance will be ratified at the Memphis meeting in session this week. Stocks at the Arkansas mills are low, and for that reason higher prices are justifiable in view of the certainty that the requirements will swell early in the new year. Recent reports from the English lumber markets indicate a much better feeling there. Prices show an upward tendency, and stocks on hand are not heavy. The chief feature of interest at present is the sharp advance in freight rates, which applies alike to Baltic and American rates. It is believed that when ocean rates from this country once more regain a normal condition values will be much higher than they have been for a long time. At London the southern yellow pine market remains about stationary, both as to sawed timbers and deals. Stocks are too heavy for the advance, caused by higher freight rates, to have any effect as yet upon distributing prices. At Liverpool the arrivals of southern pine have been confined almost entirely to boards, which are now in process of delivery. There has been a moderate improvement in timbers, and the market is firmer than it has been. At Glasgow there is a good demand for sawed timbers, but hewed timbers are in light request. There is a good demand for American black walnut logs of the better quality both at London and Liverpool, but there is still plenty of common timber to be bought at low figures. First and medium grades of walnut lumber are wanted, and prices are advancing. The supply of low grade lumber is being reduced, further importations being restricted by the higher freight rates.

Quartered oak is in fair request, and there is more demand for plain sawed lumber at higher prices. Oak logs are in only moderate demand.

High grade American whitewood or poplar lumber is improving in demand, but the common grade shows no change. The market for logs is quiet, and low prices prevail.

American satin walnut gum is in light but regular request. There is only a limited market for United States staves; imports have been heavy and prices are weaker. The demand for California redwood continues to be of a retail character, and there is no change to report in values. Ash has been moderately imported from the United States, but the inquiry is light and stocks ample. The exports of lumber and manufactures of wood from this country continue to show a steady increase. According to reports of the government bureau of statistics the total value of exports for September was $2,571,080 as compared with $2,433,893 for September last year. For the nine months ending September 30 the total value of exports this year was $26,358,529, and $21,705,173 for the same period last year. For the same nine months the imports of lumber from Canada amounted to 543,601,000 feet in 1895, and 549,523,000 feet in 1896. The cut of spruce pulp wood in New England will be larger this winter than was ever before known. The pulp mills will consume more spruce than

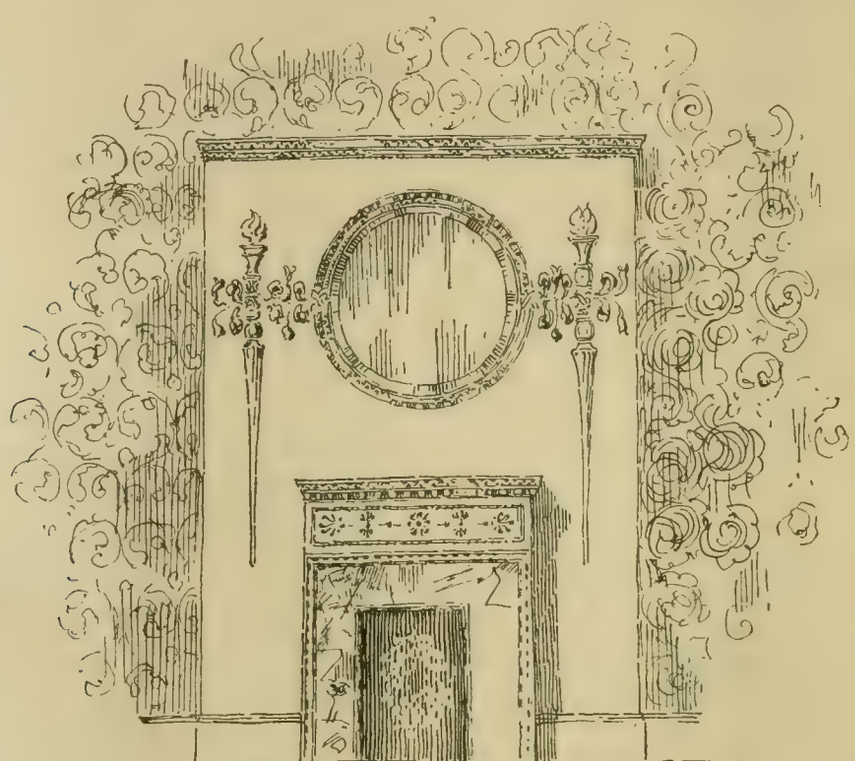
VOL. LVIII. DECEMBER 5, 1896. No. 1,499

A BETTER tone is observable in the stock market due to anticipation of pacific assurances on Monday from the President in regard to our relations with Spain. There is also an impression abroad that the coming session of Congress will not do much more than dispose of necessary routine, and that the consideration of all important matters will be deferred until the new Congress is called by President-Elect McKinley. With the Republicans in a majority, there is very little chance that they will allow the outgoing administration to carry through any good measure. That would be "bad politics," and so the community may have to wait for currency reform, the provision of a suitable national income and for a declaration on the Cuban question until they are "good politics" from the view of the dominant party. This arrangement, if adopted, would not be without its advantages. It would put off the disturbing influences of tariff and currency discussions for some time and thereby guarantee to business an interval in which it can develop itself without fear of rude set-backs. Such an assurance as this would help the security market very much, because the check to the advance three weeks ago was wholly on the alarming reports which our enterprising but mendacious press circulated as to the condition of affairs in Cuba and the dangers of a rupture with Spain. Anyway there are people who are willing to take the chances and their buying has caused the recent strength in quotations. There is also a better feeling pervading the commercial centres and the only real dull spots are those whose business is adversely affected by the season of the year, such as the iron industry, but even there prices are steady and a hopeful spirit prevails.

COMMERCIAL BRITAIN is regaining its old smug satisfaction with itself. There is apparently to be no violent opening of the Eastern question and the German competition proves not so bad as was at first thought. "Made in Germany" is no longer an announcement that affrights, and if the Teutonic journals show no sign of stopping their clumsy abuse of all things British, especially British diplomacy, the delicate cajoleries of the Gallic press to induce John to throw himself upon the bosom of Jean are more than a recompense. John is certainly justified if he grins in his sleeve when he contrasts his present position with the one he occupied a year ago, when amidst the abusive thunders of almost all the world he had to mobilize his celebrated flying squadron, which did not fly, but melted back into routine service. A year has produced a solution of the Venezuelan bother, and increased his hold upon Egypt. The Armenian business has become what it properly is, a matter for all the great Powers to deal with, and Great Britain, which only last December seemed to be cast out of the fraternity of nations, is to-day courted on every side. Even the German abuse has its flattering side, being merely a peculiar form of invitation to join the Triple Alliance rather than the Franco-Russian compact. Of course, there is a great deal of humbug in all this, and there need be no expectation of seeing Great Britain join either the Triple Alliance or the Franco-Russian compact, except for special and temporary occasions. The condition of isolation is one better suited to her nature and policy. As is often the case, what is least dreaded is the most threatening. There is now a disposition to make too little, as there has previously been a disposition to make too much of German competition. That is a matter which may be always taken seriously anywhere, in America as well as in England. The Germans have a high scientific bent, as well as a genius for organization, and these have stimulated the colossal growth of their trade in the quarter of a century of the Empire's existence. In one particular the practical side of the German intelligence is strongly brought out, and that is in the chemical laboratories that visitors have found attached to all the great works. These are described as being more perfect in their organizations, resources and capacities than can be found in any technical school, and when we think for a moment what this means in the way of scientific treatment of manufactures, and that Germany has the forces for chemical analyses and experiment already in a state of high efficiency, a competition based upon a system as complete as this indicates is nowhere to be despised.

WINTER is not the season for activity in the building trade, and it is, therefore, all the more satisfactory to note that the records of the Department of Buildings in this city and in Brooklyn show that last was a better month for the trade than November of 1895. Cummissioner Bush in the statement published elsewhere, showing the new business in his Department last month indicates that it compares quite favorably with that of the same month last year, the monetary representation being over half a million dollars more in the one case than in the other, which, for Brooklyn, is an increase of decidedly good proportions, and is especially significant in view of the fact that it had previously been Mr. Bush's duty for several months to report decreases. Taking from our weekly statistical tables the comparative figures of the filings in the Department of Buildings of this city for November of the two years, we find there also that the monetary result at least favors last month. In that period 162 plans were filed, representing work valued at $3,986,009, and in a like time last year 201 plans were filed, with estimated costs given at a total of $3,233,075. While there is a loss of 39 in the number of plans filed there is a gain in the total estimated value of the work to be done of $752,934. To understand the full meaning of this it is necessary to look at the figures for the whole year. From these figures we find that in the first eleven months of 1895, 3,605 permits were applied for for work aggregating in value $76,512,938, and in the eleven months of this year the permits were only 2,943 in number and represented work to the value of $68,982,170. These totals show the differences against this year to be, in the number of permits, 662, and, in the money representative no less than $7,530,768. We are aware that last month's permits include much of the work that was held in suspension during the summer awaiting the result of the election, and, if asked, would have to admit that its final commencement on the favorable result becoming known, probably explains the improvement in the returns we have noted. But that is the important point. The building industry of this city and Brooklyn must have a strong vitality if, when reasonable objections to incurring financial risks are removed, so much work is begun so late in the year. It is probable, too, that the current month will not make so good a showing; if it does we shall be agreeably disappointed, but the evident desire to put operations through wherever possible is a good augury for the activity that will be seen when the climatic, financial and political conditions are all favorable.



IN announcing their intention to build a block of tenements, the people who are the spirit of the City and Suburban Homes Company are fulfilling a debt they owe to the community. It is due to them, through the Tenement House Commission, that the building of tenements was made more expensive, and, therefore, less desirable as a mercantile operation. It is they who procured the doom of the four-family 25-foot house, a most undesirable form of domestic building, yet whose fate will be unregretted only if something better is provided to take its place. Therefore they should do something to replace it. What the City and Suburban Homes Company propose to erect on 68th and 69th streets, between 10th and 11th avenues, will be infinitely better, if they can only make the people who have no choice but to live in tenements see it. The operation is put forward as a business one, and the public is invited to take shares in the company's stock. While we do not wish to throw a wet blanket upon so laudable an undertaking, we do not think it will be wise for anyone to purchase these shares in an entirely unphilanthropic mood. It is true, as is so often pointed out, that a block of model tenements at 71st street and Avenue A has been a success; the company that owns them pays satisfactory dividends and has a surplus in the bank; but it is also true that another block of model tenements, on 14th street and Avenue C, makes an entirely different showing. The so-called Waterlow and the Peabody improved industrial dwellings in London are also referred to as encouraging examples of successful operations in their line, but it should be stated also that, owing to the increase in the value of land in London and to other causes, these organizations have had to put a limit to their operations. The most efficient work is done by the local authorities in Great Britain who clean out insanitary districts and erect new dwellings on improved plans at the public expense, but it is not asserted that the pecuniary results would be considered satisfactory from an entirely business point of view. In New York and other American cities we labor under the disadvantage that the very agitators for improving the homes of the poor repudiate anything like municipal control of the work. They are undoubtedly right in this, because, although we are a great and free people we are very corrupt, and an improved municipal dwelling would become simply a barrack for voters devoted to this or that boss. This make dependence upon philanthropy necessary to show the way at any rate. For the present, such buildngs are an experiment; they do not afford the same guarantee of success that buildings in other lines when carried out on a business basis do. The City and Suburban Homes Company has on its directorate gentlemen of large experience in the work, and they may be able to make the company's tenements pay in spite of the high price of land in this city, and other circumstances that militate against them. We sincerely hope so.

The House Hunter.—II.

FOR those who want spacious flats hardly anything can be found more suited to their wants than those contained in a large apartment house on the northeast corner of Eighty-first street and West End avenue.

In their arrangement there is nothing novel—the same scheme of a parlor at one end and dining-room, with its appurtenant offices, at the other, with more or fewer bedrooms between. But in these flats the parlors are of comfortable size, even for a house, perhaps fifteen by twenty or more feet, at a guess, some of them, for they vary in different flats.

DECORATION IN PARLORS.

The most striking thing upon entering these apartments is the very startling scheme—if it may be called a scheme—of color decorations. We regret to say that the effect does not appeal to us as attractive; still, paint and paper are but paint and paper; superficial things, that may be done away with and repaired more easily than most misdeeds, architectural or ethical.

Bright, loud, strong colors throughout is the effect. The parlor in vivid red, almost solid, a faint scroll pattern, in a different shade of red, interfering very little with the plain red mass, remind the spectator of the blind man's comparison of scarlet to the tones of a trumpet. Then the bedrooms are in bright yellows and green in vertical stripes, or in crude parti-colored flower patterns, making the whole place like living in a boiler factory.

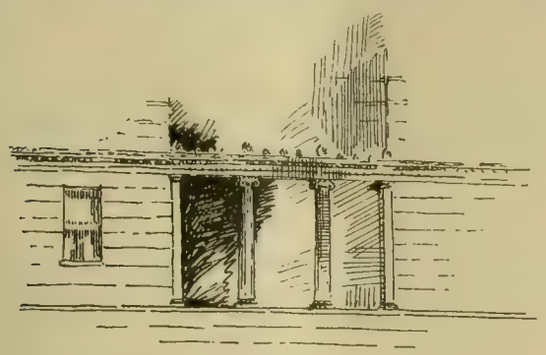
The dining-rooms are in darkish blue, with a delicate white tracery, the only tolerable rooms in the building.

The public halls are also bright, but not nearly so bright—a modified Pompeiian red, painted on burlap, not at all bad; rather the contrary, in the naturally gloomy and inevitably dark corridors. Dark, that is to say in their natural state, for they are well illuminated by electric lights, concealed behind stained glass hemispheroids in the walls, which give a pleasant, modulated light and a pretty effect of color.

Throughout the electric light is used—no other, not even the concession of combination fixtures. The bulbs are also well and thoughtfully disposed; in the parlors, upon several side brackets each of three or four lights; in the dining-rooms, a circle of bulbs is placed in the centre of the ceiling as an incident in the light composition centrepiece; and in each bedroom, two bulbs are suspended where the dressing table is meant to stand—all very convenient and appropriate.

The building is fireproof, probably to the usual extent; that is, with combustible floors, doors, sash, blinds, and trim. We confess that we should like to see a more fireproof building than is usually built, if not for a dwelling, at least for an office building. There ought to be no great difficulty nor any serious expense in making door jambs of angle iron with the Windsor cement plastering rounded off to meet it; the doors themselves even of some of the improved patented fireproof constructions; the floors of something at once incombustible and warm—some kind of ground cork cement for instance, laid in plastic form on a solid foundation.

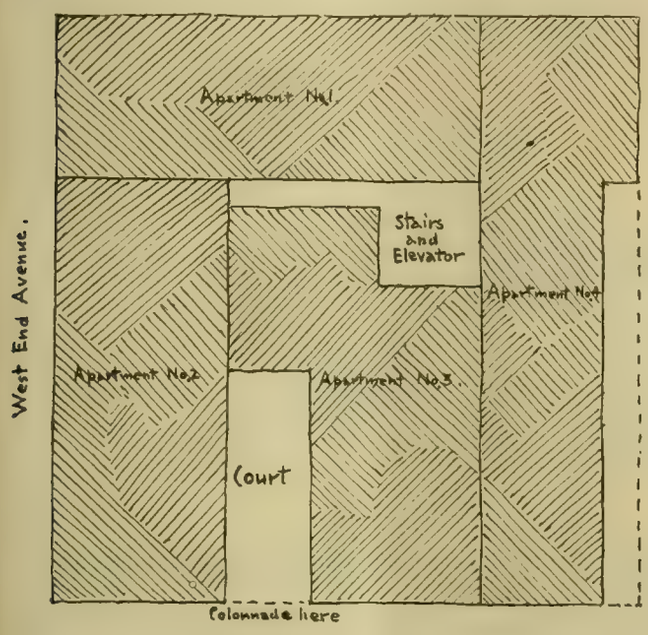
The floors of this building are of wood, of course, it is to be presumed, on the customary terra cotta block arches. This presumption is corroborated by a peculiar arrangement; the floor of every closet in the establishment, kitchen, bedroom, dining-room and all, is made of Portland cement. So also is the piece of floor under each radiator throughout. Both of these are good ideas in themselves and force upon the attention the fireproof quality of the construction.



Otherwise the floors are not up to the mark, parlors and dining-rooms are expected to be carpeted apparently, as they will certainly have to be. The bedroom floors are stained.

There is one admirable feature—a freight elevator, in a retired but convenient position, for carrying up the furniture of incoming tenants. It has iron doors at each story opening upon the main hall and looking well enough, although not masked or decorated in any way.

The trim throughout is oak, except in the parlors, which are white—we might say the customary white—so almost universal has white become for parlors. The mantels are small, advisably we think; those in the parlors with a wall construction behind them, in the dining-rooms without, but all provided with convenient gas-logs. The small size of the mantels tends to magnify the rooms themselves, as it was intended to.



Builders will be interested in the way by which one elevator and stairs is made to serve four apartments on each story. This problem is often or always solved by giving it up, so to speak, even though on so favorable a site as a corner. In most cases this hundred-foot frontage would have been divided into two fifty-foot buildings, each with its elevator and stairs. Here, however, is something new. It is arranged as roughly shown in the sketch, the nucleal point where are the stairs and elevator as shown, with two apartments fronting on the avenue and two on the street grouped about it. There is a large court opening toward the south and giving plenty of sunlight to every window. The appearance of this court from the street has been carefully studied, the front work, carving and cornices being carried around it, and a colonnade of stone columns bearing a cornice also of stone, the whole coming to the top of the first story, being placed across the mouth of it with excellent ornamental effect.

Sketch of Colonnade at Street end of Court.

The kitchen ranges we must note as they are not only gas-ranges, but are provided with hoods and sliding iron enclosures, by means of which all exhalations from saucepan and frying-pan may be removed.

THE admitted fact that the priceless records of this county are improperly stored and have no protection against fire, ought alone to be sufficient to crowd the meeting that is to be held on Tuesday next in the Real Estate Exchange to protest against this state of things. The Register's office has been the subject of more damning articles in the newspapers and in presentments of grand juries than even the Tombs, but nothing has been done to remove it and substitute a better building for it. There have been other organizations similar to the one now on foot, described in our last issue and whose recent doings will be found on another page of this one, for creating a public demand for the proper care of the records, but nothing has come of them. Yet, singular to state, the argument has always been and is entirely on one side. There is and can be no defense of the long existing maltreatment of these records. The building in which they are kept presents nothing in its own favor. Architecturally it is no attraction; practically, it ought to have gone to the rubbish heap long since. The county authorities do not defend their action, they simply do nothing and say nothing, while every hour there exists a possibility that the evidences of title to realty in this city may be thrown into the utmost confusion, the evil consequences of which no one can estimate, by the outbreak of fire or other calamity that would injure this wretched old structure. Were the records simply junk instead of being the most valuable papers that exist in any one building in the United States, they could hardly be treated with more disregard than they are by being retained where they are. It is to be hoped that the association that has taken this matter up will not let it go again until these papers are placed in a position of safety. It should be stated for it that it has no preferences in the matter of the building which should be provided so long as it is suitable, nor any preferences as to site so long as it is convenient. Its purpose is simply to rescue the records from their present position of danger and have them placed in a building where they will be secure and can be readily consulted. A rousing public meeting will have the best of effects in bringing this about, and every one whose interests are to any degree in real estate ought to be present at the meeting on Tuesday in person, or by representative where personal attendance is impossible.

Municipal Improvements—One that is Suggested.

There is a small, but interesting portion of the city whose proper development presents quite a difficult problem. Below it the city is fully built up; the same may be said of the portion directly east of it, and beyond it, north, judging by the results of recent lot sales, there is likely soon to be an extensive movement for the erection of high-class dwellings. Yet this particular section may remain undeveloped or may become the site of improvements much inferior to those for which it is fitted, unless something is done to remove certain difficulties from which it is suffering, and which stand in the way of its development in the manner that will best serve the interests of the city and contribute most to its taxable valuation. This section is the piece of land lying between 133d and 153d streets and the Boulevard and the Hudson River. Its disabilities arise from its peculiar physical conformation, which may be best described as exceedingly lumpy. It is, moreover, blessed with grades that make it uninviting to the ordinary investor or speculative builder.

There is now on view, in the office of David Stuart, on the northwest corner of Amsterdam avenue and 156th street, a model of this section made to scale which brings out its physical peculiarities in a very striking way. For the purpose of explaining a scheme or proposition for their cure, which will be described later on, this model takes in Claremont as far back as the Grant monument. Those who are acquainted with the lay of the land along the Riverside Drive will remember that Claremont ends somewhat abruptly at a steep descent, and that immediately beyond it for several blocks the land lays low, and that at 133d street there is another abrupt rise, the land forming a ridge, which continues for some distance. As the Boulevard runs along the end of this ridge the streets opening from it on its west side pitch toward the river quite decidedly, and it is because of this pitch, or grade as it would be technically termed, the owners of the land abutting on these streets find it impossible to obtain for it that attention they think it ought to get, and otherwise would get, from the people who make it a business to place in desirable places houses that they afterward dispose of to home seekers; or from people who buy lots and build their own homes.

It should be stated that although the streets in this section have all been mapped out they have not been all made by any means. Some have and terminate at walls built by the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company, where they touch their right of way. As mapped out the section contains about 1,600 lots, or a capacity for, say, 1,600 houses, providing each occupied no more than an ordinary city lot. In its present state of survived primitiveness it contains about one hundred houses all told, and these, speaking generally, of a poor class. Most of these facts are shown in a clear and graphic way by the plaster model previously referred to, and perhaps they could not be brought out so graphically in any other way. At the beginning can be seen the Grant Monument and the high knolls between 133d and 137th streets; then the slope from the Boulevard, its rapid descent toward the river, its uneven surface; the streets that are laid out and the spots upon which buildings now stand; finally it shows the relations of Trinity Cemetery, Audubon Park and Boulevard Lafayette to the private property south of them and other minor details, all of which are very interesting and worthy of study. What it is intended to emphasize are the grades which make development impossible. For the information of those who cannot consult this plaster map it may be stated, in order that they may still understand the situation, that the Boulevard at 138th street is 96 feet above high-water mark, and the distance between the two is about 800 feet, so that the grade on that street is 12 per cent; at 142d street it is 103 feet above high-water mark on a distance of 700 feet, a grade of nearly 15 per cent; at 148th street it is 111 feet above high-water mark on a distance of 700, making the grade practically 16 per cent; at 153d street it is 136 feet, in about 1,200 feet, above high-water mark, making a grade of over 11 per cent. What these grades mean may be judged from this fact: At the foot of 138th street, which street is graded, paved and sewered, there is a dock, but no one would dream of using that street for the hauling of goods from the dock, the horse-power that would be required prohibiting it.

The model referred to has not been prepared with so much care simply to satisfy curiosity on the contour of this particular stretch of territory. It has a more practical purpose than that. Its purpose is to call public attenion to the facts in the case, and, if possible, to interest the authorities in affording relief, through the means of a public improvement, and thereby open the land to development, with consequent increase to the taxable resources of the city. Should this effort be successful, there is no telling what form the relief would take, as that would have finally to be decided by the City's engineers, but some of the property-owners make a suggestion which has upon its face sufficient merit to deserve at least careful examination. Before describing this suggestion it should be stated that between the railroad and the high ground is a strip about one hundred feet wide. The idea is that a retaining wall should be built on one side of this strip, from 133d street to 150th street, and a driveway on a level with the top of the wall made by filling in between the wall and the high ground, the material for filling in being, of course, supplied from the inequalities of the adjacent land. At 150th street it is suggested that the driveway take a sweep through the blocks to the Boulevard at 153d street. This curve is suggested in order that the driveway might not interfere with Trinity Cemetery, but for which it would be proposed that it be continued along the river, through Audubon Park to Boulevard Lafayette. As now proposed, the driveway would connect with the Boulevard only three blocks from its junction with Boulevard Lafayette. Incidentally it is suggested that if this proposed new driveway could be connected with Claremont by a viaduct thrown across the streets intervening between 127th and 133d streets, there would be formed, probably, the finest driveway in the whole world, as the new work would link together two elaborate systems of ornamental roadway. The combined system would commence at 72d street and running alongside the Hudson River to 150th street, thence along Boulevard Lafayette to Dyckman street, by which connection is made with the new speedway and the lines of pleasure roads that terminate at 110th street, near the entrance to Central Park.

This is doubtless a very ambitious office to create for about a mile of new roadway intended in the first instance to animate a somewhat limited piece of territory, now lying dormant, but if it was possible of achievement it would give a direction to the animating movement very gratifying to the owners of the land affected and to the city at large. It is not possible that this land will always remain as it is; time alone will compel its improvement, but the character of that improvement will be moulded by circumstances. If the conditions remain always as they are now, the improvements are likely to be poor ones; if the proposed road only is built they will be of good class; but, if the viaduct is also built, they will be of a high-class and repeat to some extent the rise in values that has been seen in West End avenue and its vicinity. Unless the examinations of the engineers should disclose circumstances that would make the improvement suggested an unusually expensive one, it is easy to see that the city would be benefited by a work of moderate cost that would redeem these 1,600 lots from their present condition of stagnation. The poorest improvements would add some millions of dollars to their value for purposes of taxation and superior ones would add many millions of dollars to it.

But suggesting a public improvement, be it ever so important, is quite another thing from securing its adoption by the city authorities. It is the first step, it is true, but there is an interval between first and last steps in such cases, whose extent depends upon the necessity for the work and the vigor and influence that is given to the agitation in its favor. The parties most interested are the owners of the affected property and upon them will fall the long and patient work that must first be done to arouse public attention and to interest the proper authorities in it. Probably what is now being done will be followed up by the introduction of a bill into the Legislature next year to empower the city to construct the driveway, at any rate, leaving the question of the viaduct to be treated at another time. The illustration above gives a rough idea of the line of the proposed improvement, though to get an idea of its necessity we refer our readers to the plaster model of the ground described above.

For a New Hall of Records.

The call for assistance in procuring the erection of a new Register's office or Hall of Records in order to provide for the safety of the real estate records of this county is meeting with a most enthusiastic response. S. Stanwood Menken, temporary chairman; Thos. H. Baskerville, temporary secretary and the Committee on Organization of the association, formed to arouse public interest in this movement, have done a vast amount of good work in the past week, and have arranged for a public meeting to be held at 4 p. m., on Tuesday next, the 8th inst., in the Real Estate Exchange, No. 59 Liberty street. At this meeting a permanent organization will be formed, of which it is expected that Mr. John D. Crimmins will be president. That gentleman is already gone into the movement with characteristic energy and directness.

The officers of the association have already found that there will be considerable for them to do, inasmuch as there is a great diversity of opinion as to what plan is best, and much lethargy to be overcome. They find those who favor a Register's office in the Park are apt to partially condemn those in favor of acquiring a site elsewhere. They have to decide whether an office be erected for the housing of the records of the Register only, or whether the proposed structure shall accommodate Surrogate's, County Clerk's and Register's offices. Those who favor a site in the Park point to the fact that a building erected upon the ground occupied by the present old brownstone courthouse would be suitable and large enough to accommodate all the offices, and at the same time take up no more room than at present occupied by that building, the fire engine house and the present Hall of Records. It is the intention of the officers of the association, before taking any step, to consult with the city authorities and bring them to a conclusion as to what is best of the various plans suggested. Having once decided upon a plan it will then be their work to see that it is carried out to a completion. The following gentlemen have been invited to become vice-presidents of the association, and the responses are with few exceptions acceptances:

F. R. Coudert, W. H. Peckham, E. W. Coggeshall, Clarence H. Kelsey, E. V. Loew, R. V. Harnett, Richard A. McCurdy, Samuel D. Babcock, David McClure, John M. Bowers, A. D. Juilliard, Hugh J. Grant, Charles R. Henderson, John A. Stewart, Franklin B. Lord, Ferdinand Levy, Edward Lauterbach, Charles S. Fairchild, James C. Carter, Charles C. Beaman, Horace S. Ely, Alexander E. Orr, Charles Stewart Smith, John A. McCall, L. J. Phillips, Jas. W. Alexander, John P. Townsend, Gustav Schwab, John Jacob Astor, Judge Ernest Hall, Francis M. Jencks, E. W. Bloomingdale, Henry Lewis Morris, Jefferson M. Levy, James L. Wells, Peter F. Meyer, John Duer, Charles S. Brown, Benjamin F. Tracy, Jos. S. Larocque, John E. Parsons, John Webber, Henry W. Eaton, Sigmund Neustadt, Eugene A. Philbin, Henry E. Howland, William Arrowsmith, Charles E. Strong, Michael J. Coleman, Cornelius N. Bliss, Archibald B. Welsh, Henry G. Marquand, Wm. C. Sturges, James McMahon, David L. Einstein, Philip Bissinger, George G. Williams, John Harsen Rhoades, Chas. A. Peabody, Jr., Geo. R. Read, John S. Kennedy, James McCreery, Morris K. Jesup, Wm. C. Schermerhorn, John DeWitt Warner, Elbridge T. Gerry, J. Edward Simmons, Henry B. Hyde, George G. Havens, and Henry Parish.

A circular, of which about 12,500 copies have been issued by the Association, says among other things:

The records of real estate titles in New York City are in constant danger of destruction by fire or mutilation.

The present Hall of Records was built in 1752, and it is now overcrowded, unsafe, unhealthy and a disgrace to the city. Billions of dollars of property are affected by this condition, and this is a matter of vital interest to every one who owns or is interested in New York real estate.

The urgent necessity for a new building has resulted in the formation of "The Association for Securing the Erection of a New Register's Office or Hall of Records." Temporary officers have been elected and it is now desired to effect a permanent organization.

A meeting will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 8, 1896, at 4 p. m., in the large room of the Real Estate Exchange and Salesroom, Ltd., No. 59 Liberty street. It is desirable that every person interested in the purpose and object above stated shall attend this meeting.

There are no dues or charges for membership, but voluntary subscriptions will be received and acknowledged by George F. Butterworth, Esq., Temporary Treasurer, No. 40 Wall street, New York City.

Many movements have been started to accomplish the purposes above stated. It is intended that this demonstration shall be so general and widespread that the public sentiment cannot be questioned, and that the object of the Association shall be accomplished at a very early date.

The Real Estate Board of Brokers passed the following preamble and resolutions at a meeting held on Thursday last, and in accordance with their terms Messrs. J. Edgar Leaycraft, F. R. Houghton and Alfred E. Marling were appointed a committee to confer with the committee of lawyers:

Whereas, The present Hall of Records, known as the Register's Office, is not a fireproof building, and the papers and records now kept there are of inestimable value to real estate interests in the city of New York, be it

Resolved, That we approve and indorse the recent action of the lawyers in urging upon the city authorities the necessity of at once providing a new building of fireproof construction for the Register's Office; and, be it

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the chair to co-operate with the organization of lawyers, having the same object in view.

Recovery on Bonds, to Discharge Mechanic's Lien.

One of the very many points relating to mechanics' liens has just been passed upon by the Supreme Court-Appellate Division, and it holds that an action at law may be maintained upon a bond given under the statute to discharge a mechanic's lien, and that the remedy of bringing the sureties into the action to foreclose the lien and establish their liability in that action is not exclusive. The case in point was that of Jacob and George Ringle v. Francis O. Matheisen, appellant. The action was brought to recover upon a bond given under the statute to discharge a mechanic's lien. After the lien was discharged the action to foreclose the lien was prosecuted to judgment against the same parties, the sureties upon the bond not having been brought in as parties. The judgment adjudged that the plaintiffs recover against the defendants the amount of their claim, and that they had a lien against premises described therein for the amount of their claim, but provided that so much of the judgment as declared that the plaintiffs had a lien on the premises was in form only, and was directed and entered for the purpose of enabling plaintiffs to recover upon the bond given to discharge the lien. That judgment was affirmed upon appeal by the General Term of the Supreme Court. The only question raised upon this appeal is as to the procedure to enforce the liability of the sureties on the bond. The defendant claims that an action at law could not be maintained, but the only remedy was to bring the sureties into the foreclosure action as defendants and establish their liability in that action. The trial court held the action at law could be maintained and ordered judgment accordingly. This judgment was confirmed by the Appellate Division.

The Torrens System of Title Certification.

"The Law Journal," in reviewing the recent decision of the Illinois Supreme Court, declaring the Torrens Law, passed by the Illinois Legislature, unconstitutional, has the following to say upon the suggestion of introducing the Torrens system into this State. The "Journal's" remarks may be taken as expressing the feeling in legal circles in this city upon that question:

It must be remembered that the fundamental idea of the Torrens system is to have the State adjudicate upon and guarantee private titles. Certainly this is an exceptional extension of democratic sovereignty. It is, of course, a legitimate public function to scientifically systematize and to guard as carefully as possible the public real estate records; but the issuing of absolute certificates of individual ownership falls under a different head. Then, too, in the older communities, such as New York City, the practical burden of officially searching titles, judicially passing upon questions of law and fact and obtaining opinions of competent examining counsel would be onerous and expensive. It would undoubtedly be a boon to property owners and the community at large if real estate titles could be cleared from groundless suspicions and rendered as promptly marketable as personal securities. The question, however, is whether such consummation is not more properly a private than a public enterprise, and whether it will not be substantially sufficient to rely on such agencies as the real estate title companies to forward it.

Property Owners and the News-stands.

An action has been brought by William P. Douglas to restrain the city from maintaining a news-stand under the stairway of the elevated railroad in front of his premises at Park place and Church street. It was contended at the hearing before Justice Smyth, on Wednesday, that Chapter 718 of the Laws of 1896, permitting such stands with only the restriction that the booth or stand shall not be wider "than the width of the stairs under which it is placed, or extend along the sidewalk a greater distance than to a point where the under surface of the stairs is not over seven feet from the level of the sidewalk," is unconstitutional, in that it clearly deprives property owners of easements of air light and access without compensation. It was also claimed that the permit issued did not comply with the ordinance, in that it failed to limit the height of the stand to be erected to seven feet. It was argued on behalf of the city that the plaintiff had a complete and adequate remedy at law for the trespass, if such there be, upon the property. Justice Smyth did not give a definite decision, but expressed himself as being inclined to the opinion that on a motion at Special Term the court would not rule against the constitutionality of a legislative enactment.

Pedlers on the Street.

The Board of Aldermen have, in revising the ordinance relating to the sale of goods upon the public streets, provided for the prevention of obstruction of the public thoroughfares by reason of the crowding together of pedlers. The revised ordinance as adopted at the last meeting of the Board, contains besides this, other provisions which it will interest tenants and owners of buildings to know, for which reason an extract from the ordinance containing them is given below. It may be mentioned, too, that the Board has re-enacted its permission to pedlers, repealed two weeks ago, to stand with their wagons on Saturday evenings on 10th avenue, between 49th and 53d streets.

Sec. 10. No licensed pedler, vender, hawker, or huckster shall permit any cart, wagon or vehicle, owned or controlled by him, or her, to stop, remain upon or otherwise incumber any street, avenue or highway for a longer period than thirty minutes at one time on any one block. Nor shall any such pedler, vender, hawker, or huckster, stand in front of any premises, the owner of or the lessee of the ground floor thereof objecting thereto. At the expiration of the thirty minutes, aforesaid, any vender, with or without a basket, cart, wagon or vehicle, must be removed to a point at least one block distant.

Sec. 11. No licensed pedler, vender, hawker, or huckster shall permit his or her cart, wagon or vehicle to stand on any street, avenue or highway within twenty-five feet of any corner of the curb, nor within ten feet of any other pedler, vender, hawker or huckster.

Sec. 12. No licensed pedler, vender, hawker, or huckster shall use any part of a sidewalk or crosswalk for conducting his or her business, and shall not cast or throw any thing or article of any kind or character upon the street, nor interfere with or prevent to any degree the Street Cleaning Department from sweeping or cleaning, or from gathering street sweepings, etc., from the streets or avenues.

Sec. 15. No licensed pedler, vender, hawker, or huckster shall be allowed to cry his or her wares within two hundred and fifty feet of any school, court-huose, church or hospital between the hours of 8 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. on school days; or stop or remain in Nassau street, between Spruce and Wall streets, from 8 o'clock a. m. to 6 o'clock p. m.

Sec. 16. All licensed pedlers, venders, hawkers, or hucksters who shall locate on any street or avenue under the provisions of this ordinance with intention to remain thirty minutes or part thereof, shall use the east and the north sides of streets and avenues up to noon, and the west and south sides after noon of any day so using them. This section shall not apply to such venders who are moving along the streets, avenues or highways, without intention to locate at any one point, for thirty minutes, or who may be called on by the resident of any building, for the purpose of making a purchase.

Proposed Tunnel under Union Square.

The Metropolitan Traction Company has proposed that it be permitted to run in a tunnel under Union s quare, in order to do away with the dangerous curve at 14th street. According to the plans submitted to the Committee on Railroads of the Board of Aldermen the tunnel would be 640 feet long and 15 feet deep in the centre, extending from the north side of 14th street to the south side of 17th street. The estimated grade will be 8 feet in 100, which would be no great hindrance to the cable. The new president of the Park Board, Mr. Samuel McMillan, has expressed himself as opposed to the scheme and his position has the approval, apparently, of the press and the public.

An Important and Valuable Publication.

The Real Estate Board of Brokers are about to publish a manual and diary for 1897. It will contain much valuable information of particular interest to all real estate brokers, investors, real estate owners, trustees, lawyers, etc., including a list of all New York City officials, heads of departments and bureaus corrected up to date; date of confirmation and payment of taxes; water rates; all tax rates since 1860 and yearly amount of taxes collected; list of District Courts and marshals, summary of dispossess laws; condemnation rules; Commissioners of Greater New York and Rapid Transit; also of all the new bridges and of other public improvements; rates of commission authorized by the Real Estate Exchange; auction room rates; City Surveyors; list of flat and apartment houses; office and studio buildings.

The information comprised within this manual was collected with considerable care. It is believed to be accurate, and some of it is not obtainable elsewhere.

Real Estate Board of Brokers.

The following have been appointed a committee to nominate directors for the Real Estate Board of Brokers, to be proposed for election at the annual meeting to be held on Jan. 6th: Messrs. John F. Doyle (chairman), Chas. H. Easton, J. Hamilton Hunt, W. D. Rusher and Edward Ashforth. The inspectors of election will be: Frederick D. Kalley, W. Willis Reese and Chas. Griffith Moses.

The Board has authorized the issue of a "For Sale" form to secure exclusive control of the sale of a particular piece of property which is very complete and will doubtless be highly appreciated by the members of the Board. It covers very fully the description and other circumstances of the property to be put on sale and has a brief, but satisfactory clause binding the owner to give exclusive agency to the party to whom the order is delivered, with the right to cancel on notice, the term of which is to be agreed to between the parties.

The Mott Haven Canal.

Corporation Counsel Scott has advised the Board of Street Opening and Improvement that the old injunction restraining the Board from interfering with the Mott Haven Canal is no longer operative. The final consideration of what shall be done with the canal was postponed until the 28th inst.

Real Estate Market.

The brokers, with the assistance of several trades of magnitude, have succeeded this week in rolling up an aggregate consideration of about $2,900,000 to represent their transactions, or at least those of them that they are willing to report, or of which information has been otherwise obtained. Outside of deals involving business property on Broadway and other business thoroughfares, lot sales have been the feature of the week. The demand for dwellings has abated, and they cut an unimportant figure in the business reported. On the other hand, an improved demand for flats and tenements has been experienced, and their sale has contributed materially to the building up of the total given above.

Cheap lots were numerously offered and sold by James L. Wells, at the Broadway Salesroom, on Monday. They comprised a newly opened section of the Vyse estate property, lying north of Jennings street and east of Vyse street, owned, as are all the lots of that estate, by the Twenty-third Ward Land Improvement Co. Not more than 150 persons by actual count confronted the auctioneer at 12 o'clock, when the reading began of the terms of sale, preliminary to the more important work of the day. One-half of that number remained until the 86th and last lot was knocked down at 3.40 o'clock p. m. The comparatively small attendance included, however, an unusually large percentage of bidders and buyers. The day proved a sure enough gala occasion for investors in trans-Harlem lots, according to the claim made by the president of the company that the sale was a sacrifice throughout. The buyers numbered 37, and the lots knocked down were 86 for a total of $52,105. Each of the parties interested in the sale assured a reporter of "The Record and Guide" on its conclusion that "every lot put up was positively sold." The bidding was slow at all times, the advances on the first two or three bids in nearly every instance being five dollars each. As Auctioneer Wells expressed it after the sale had ended, it was very much like pulling teeth by the old-time barber method. The lots outlined on the auction map and advertised to be sold numbered 198, but it was deemed advisable by the owners in view of what they considered the inadequate prices obtained not to extend the offering, and the withdrawal of the balance of the property, 112 lots, followed the final sale of a batch of three on Longfellow street. A list of the lots sold with description and names of buyers will be found in another column.

On Tuesday, D. P. Ingraham & Co. adjourned to the 22d inst. a previously postponed foreclosure sale of No. 12 5th avenue. Philip A. Smyth sold one property by order of executrix and withdrew from public auction, on a bid of $6,800, No. 107 East 113th street. William M. Ryan similarly offered several 28d Ward lots, all of which were withdrawn as follows: Two on the west side of Ogden avenue, 25 feet south of Merriam avenue, at $1,950 each; one on the north side of Birch street, 174.3 west of Ogden avenue, at $1,700, and two on a proposed street that will run north from the junction of Birch street and Lind avenue, at $625 each.

Wednesday's offerings attracted little attention, and as a consequence the proceedings proved dull and uninteresting. Bryan L. Kennelly secured a buyer for a lot on Mangin street, and that was the only sale of the day of an offering of a voluntary description. The same auctioneer withdrew, on a bid of $25,750. No. 319 West 89th street; a parcel of four lots on the northeast corner of Academy and Cooper streets, at $6,500; two lots adjoining on the latter street, on which are a house and stable, at $6,000, and two just east of them, at $2,600. Richard V. Harnett offered at executor's sale, in the Real Estate Exchange, No. 1989 7th avenue, and withdrew it on a final bid of $23,000; also a house in Brooklyn, and a country place at West-Park-on-Hudson, neither of which met with sufficiently appreciative bidding to allow of their being disposed of. On the same day, at No. 111 Broadway, William Kennelly adjourned, until April 15, 1897, a partition sale of No. 46 East 49th street. On the following day the same auctioneer adjourned to the 17th inst. a foreclosure sale of No. 239 West 39th street.

Geo. R. Read, at the Real Estate Exchange, on Thursday, eclipsed all the previous lot auctions of the year by disposing of 156 lots in the 24th Ward, between noon and 5 o'clock p. m. The attendance was one of the largest the room has ever held, and that it included a large proportion of investors was demonstrated by the fact that the successful bidders numbered 52, many of whom bought extensively in different sections of the tract. The lots were offered under the direction of the executors of the will of Maria L. Travers, deceased, and as there was absolutely no protection in the interest of the owners, bidders were able to make their own prices. That they were low ones our tabulated statement in another column shows full well to all who are conversant with neighborhood values. At one time, after the sale had lasted about an hour, Mr. Read and the executors discussed the advisability of withdrawing the bulk of the property on account of the unappreciative bidding. A statement addressed to the crowd by the auctioneer advising them of the possibility of a withdrawal had a beneficial effect, however, and more liberality was shown in the offers that followed and continued until the close of the day. We were unable yesterday to obtain any figures at the office of Mr. Read, but our list indicates $97,915 as the total amount realized. That would give an average of about $627 per lot. Owing to the lateness of the hour it was found necessary to adjourn the sale of the balance of the property until Monday, when it is expected that the experience of Thursday will be repeated.

Yesterday two parcels were withdrawn from foreclosure sale. They were No. 516 West 51st street by Philip A. Smyth, and four lots on 136th street, 100 feet west of Home avenue, by L. J. Phillips & Co.

Through a misunderstanding our list of "Advertised Legal Sales" last week included one to take place to-day, that of No. 483 Manhattan avenue. It was adjourned November 24 by William Kennelly until the 15th inst.

Richard V. Harnett & Co. will sell at auction on Thursday, next, the 10th inst., in the Real Estate Exchange, No. 59 Liberty street, the residence parcels Nos. 95 and 97 Clinton place. They also announce for Tuesday, the 15th inst., the sale at the same place, of the valuable investment properties No. 5 Park avenue and No. 105 East 34th street, and the northeast corner of Fulton and Gold streets. The first comprises a lot, 20x80, on Park avenue, and one, 20x98.9, on East 34th street, upon which are a brownstone four-story dwelling and a two-story stable. The downtown parcel is made up of a large plot of land with six-story basement and cellar brick building thereon, known as Nos. 73, 75, 77 and 79 Fulton street, located as previously stated and occupied as stores and manufactories. Fuller description will be found in our advertising pages, and maps, etc., can be had of the auctioneers at their offices, Nos. 71 and 73 Liberty street.

William Kennelly calls attention, on another page of this issue, to his auction offerings for Tuesday, the 15th inst., which include the following valuable properties: Nos. 542 and 633 2d avenue, Nos. 340 and 342 East 36th street, and the leasehold No. 67 West 49th street. Particulars of all these will be found in the auctioneer's announcement previously referred to, or can be had, with maps, from him at No. 111 Broadway. The place of sale will be the Broadway Salesroom.

Bryan L. Kennelly will offer at auction on Wednesday, the 16th inst., two valuable business parcels in the Real Estate Salesroom, No. 111 Broadway. Full particulars, with maps, can be obtained of the auctioneer, at his office, No. 66 Liberty street. Our business pages contain an announcement of the sale, with brief description of the properties and other details. The parcels in question are Nos. 110 and 112 Nasasu street and No. 43 Ann street. The first is a four-story and cellar brick business building, located on Nassau street, near Ann, on lot 37.9x87.2x irregular, and the second a similar building, on lot 15.1x36, forming an "L." The sale will be without reserve and 65 per cent. of the purchase money may remain on bond and mortgage for one, three or five years at 4½ per cent.

The Casanova Sale Vacated.

Judge Andrews has denied a motion to confirm the partition sale of the Casanova tract in the 23d Ward, made last spring. The weight of testimony led him to conclude that if the property had been cut up into lots it would have brought two or three times the money offered. The sale was in two lots, one of ten acres, that produced $33,000, and one of one acre that fetched $2,000.

Coal Docks Below Riverside Drive.

T. W. Brasher and John McDonald, representing the West Side Property-Owners' Association, Cyrus Clark, President of the West End Association, and Builder Harvey Murdock waited on the Dock Board on Thursday, to protest against the erection of coal and brick sheds on the piers at the foot of West 77th and West 79th streets. It was claimed that the Park Department had given the Dock Board the water front at this point on condition that no material be stored there. President O'Brien indulged in the clap-trap that while the brickmakers and coal dealers were not as pretentious as the deputants they were entitled to all legal assistance in carrying on their business. He suggested that the holders of pier permits and the property-owners confer. The matter will come up again in a few weeks.

Personal.

Thomas J. Drummond, builder, has been proposed for stock membership of the Real Estate Exchange.

Concerning Real Estate Agents and Brokers.

The firm of Underhill & Francis, comprising John G. Underhill, Arthur W. Francis and Howard Wilson, real estate agents and brokers, No. 353 5th avenue, was dissolved on November 20 by mutual consent, Mr. Underhill retiring. The business will be continued in the upright manner that characterized the dealings of the old firm at the old stand by Mr. Francis and Mr. Wilson, under the firm-name of Francis & Wilson.

John G. Underhill, late of Underhill & Francis, is now located at No. 7 Pine street and 101 West 106th street, transacting a general realty business, including renting and collecting. Mr. Underhill has had ten years' experience, and these years of constant and continuous work have led to the extensive and valued acquaintance and clientele which he now enjoys. Mr. Underhill has for sale a number of desirable investment properties below 14th street.

Trade Notes.

The Henry Worthington Company, manufacturer of pumping machinery, has just received word through its London office that the exhibit of Worthington pumps at the Hungarian National Exhibition, at Budapest, has been awarded a grand Millennium medal. The Great International Window Cleaning Co., of No. 196 2d avenue, New York (telephone 1415 18th street), and 59 Court street, Brooklyn, have a record for careful and honest work at moderate prices, and their list of patrons is both extensive and high class. Prominent buildings cleaned by the company during the year include the new house of Mr. Herman Oehlrich, No. 1 East 57th street, and the Harlem Wheelmen's Clubhouse, 124th street, both for Norcross Bros., builders; Flower Hospital, 63d street and Avenue A; new buildings, No. 113 West 31st street and 6th avenue and 19th street, for Builder T. They also cleaned Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt's house, No. 1 West 57th street, and do so yearly.

Area Gratings.

In our last two issues we have discussed the new ruling of the Department of Public Works as to area vaults. It has been our hope that the Department would take a more lenient view of the matter than the extreme one to which it was apparently committed by Commissioner Collis's letter addressed to Mr. Chas. Buek. The Department, however, are determined to fight for the rigorous interpretation of the law. Yesterday they sent a force of men up town to Mr. Buek's new flat and store building, on the southwest corner of Amsterdam avenue and 81st street, and tore up the gratings and platforms that had just been completed there by Busse & Jordis, the architectural iron workers, who did the iron work in the building. The position of the Department is now quite plain. Whether the Department can be touched or influenced by the force of public opinion of course can only be guessed at so long as no public action is taken by the industry whose interests are most immediately affected by the new rule. If builders and property-owners are content to pay the high and, in some cases, onerous price demanded by the Department for area privileges, there is no harm in silence. Certainly the Department is not likely to give any attention to silence or to individual protest.

CONVEYANCES.

Wherever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it.

The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the Deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

[1]Editor Record and Guide:

In reference to liens filed against theatre, now being constructed by our client William Seitz, we beg through your columns, to explain to those who have supplied materials or performed services thereon, that the filing of said liens was hasty and unauthorized. The reason therefor is apparent to those who have noticed that Smith & Gaylor (the junior member of which firm was a partner with Mr. Seitz in the above enterprise), made an assignment for the benefit of the creditors of that firm. Our client never had nor has any connection with that firm. We advised our client to purchase Mr. Gaylor's interest in the theatre enterprise and the deed thereto was recorded on the same day the liens were filed. Mr. Seitz will remove all liens filed against him and assures those who have furnished work and materials on the theatre that they need not be alarmed on account of the assignment of the firm of Smith & Gaylor.

Respectfully,
Hayman & Rosenthal.

[2]Editor Record and Guide:

We have no contract with Smith & Gaylor on the building at No. 636 Broadway. We have, however, a contract with Jarvis B. Smith, but only a small amount has been paid on account of it. The lien made by D. M. Nesbit will probably be removed shortly. The lien by the Harlem Wood Working Lumber Co., on the Cushman Apartment Building for $251 is filed through an error, and we understand that this also will be removed. Neither Smith & Gaylor or Jarvis B. Smith have a contract on this building.

Geo. A. Fuller Co., per G. L. Newton.

ORDERS.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.
Wherever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for further particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

November 21.

Jefferson st, cor Hamburgh av, known as St Leonards Church. Pierson & Co agt Barudio & Schlachter, Chas O Brown and St Leonard's Church 857.00
(Corrects error as to amount and also as to appearing under liens instead of orders.)

This transaction should have been recorded last week as an "Order." We regret this misplacement, because, as our readers know, "Orders," although filed according to law, with the ordinary mechanics' liens, do not necessarily reflect at all on the credit of the party against whom they are filed.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

NEW YORK.

BRICKS.—There has been a general absence of tone to the market, particularly for the ordinary grades. Demand has been light, as dealers have appeared to have fairly large stocks and have not been anxious for additional supplies. Receipts, however, have continued liberal, as manufacturers have been shipping brick as fast as they could obtain boats, with the result that receivers have been carrying fairly large supplies, and to make sales they have found it necessary to lower prices 12½ per cent. on the ordinary grades; for the better grades, however, quotations have not been changed, but indications were that there was a general shading of prices all along the line to affect sales. The range of quotations for the ordinary grades has been from $3.87½ to $4.12½, and for the better grades $4.25 @ 4.75 were the prices; specials have been unchanged at $5.00. There has been a moderate supply of pale brick on the market, and as demand has been slow prices have weakened to $1.75, at which price good brick has been sold; still, for a strictly choice brick, up to $2.00 has been paid, and the range of quotations has remained unchanged at $1.50@2.00. There has been a quiet market for Jersey brick. Demand has been slow, but offerings have been limited and prices have held steady at $3.75@4.00, according to quality.

CEMENT.—Comparatively little interest has been shown in the market for Rosendale. The season is late, and there has been little call for supplies, but there has been no stock pressing on the market, and values have held steady at 75@80c. A moderate number of orders have been received for the domestic grades of Portland cement, and there has also been some rule of foreign; prices have been unchanged and steady.

VOL. LVIII. DECEMBER 12, 1896. No. 1,500

THOSE who anticipated a pacific message from the President and a quiet meeting of Congress, accompanied by greater strength in the Stock market, were right as to the first facts, but not as to their consequences in the particular named. Good news fails to exert influence because the public has no speculative desire, in the absence of which prices cannot advance. While this is the case it cannot be said that the bearish operations which have been persistently maintained by the professional element have been very successful, and a feature of great importance to the other side is now becoming prominent. This is that the market is being raked and scraped for good bonds, with but poor results, the brokers who make a specialty of investments being unable to fill their orders. The investment demand which this fact displays will spread to the issues of the second class and of newly reorganized properties, and finally result in elevating the whole market, as was the case abroad when, with returning confidence, money began to seek employment. Among disquieting influences are the threatened suit of the State of Pennsylvania to prevent the consummation of the Reading reorganization, and the necessity for Congress to act on the Pacific debt. Should the first be carried out it could not fail to cause disquiet in the minds of the holders of Reading securities, and thereby produce liquidation; but, as to the second, as Congress could never before be brought to act upon the matter of the Pacific Railroad debt, the present emergency may compel them to do so, and bring to pass that agreement of compromise that ought to have been made ten years ago, when it was proposed by the late Charles Francis Adams. General business shows continued improvement; the pace is slow, but we are surely getting toward more prosperous times.

RUSSIA'S policy toward Turkey is coming to be defined as an agreement among the great Powers that she shall do as she pleases at Constantinople, or a partition in which she shall take the whole. This is a very fine policy, if Turkey and the other Powers will allow it to be carried out; but we fear that in a little while, when Russia's real intent becomes so apparent that it cannot escape even the diplomatic eye, the Eastern Question will become acute again. Notwithstanding the disturbed state of Turkey for the past two years, the net receipts from the revenues assigned to the Turkish bondholders for the year ending last March were equal to showing a reserve over actual interest requirements, and the Administrator reports that the crops have been exceptionally good this year in almost all parts of the Empire, and in some magnificent, while agricultural prices have risen. This last statement illustrates in a graphic way how national life will go on in spite of obstacles, and incidentally how rare it is to get a true picture of a nation from abroad. While Constantinople has been the scene of riot and bloodshed, and while whole districts have been terrorized and devastated, so that the outsider thought the whole country was in a ferment, the greater part of the people have gone their accustomed way, ploughing, sowing and reaping, and providing the nourishment of the national system, and, even now, are doubtless unaware of the generous plans the infidels have formed in their behalf. If the latest announcement of the intended action of Great Britain, France and Russia, with the consent of the other Powers, proves true it will be received with the greatest satisfaction on this side of the Atlantic, because of the promise it involves of protection to the Armenians, whether the movement gives Russia or any other one Power the upper hand in the control of the country. Possibly, our people will not be sorry to see some restraints put upon the hands of a Government that collects taxes with the knout, even in an arrangement that calls it in to protect an oppressed people from pillage and murder. Commercially, the influence of the announced coercion of the Sultan cannot yet be seen, but if there is an unanimity of opinion and action among the six great Powers, there is little likelihood that it will be disturbing, except to the small degree that Turkish trade itself affords.

Another Attack on Crime.

WE spoke recently of the "crime of owning real estate." This particular class of proprietorship has only lately been added to the list of misdemeanors, but our city officials are exhibiting commendable alertness in dealing with the offence, surrounding it with so many pains and penalties that not only the tender culprit who acquires, but even the more hardened rascal who "holds on" to the commodity (from which, by the way, the City derives the greater part of its revenue) must be thoroughly terrorized. Our provident legislatures have enacted so many laws and scattered among so many officials so many harassing powers, that really there is no lack of means for dealing with the real estate owner. He can be caught, as it were, at every turn and corner. There need be no rest for him from the moment he acquires a lot, until he either recognizes the evil of his way and disposes of his property to some deeper dyed villain than himself, or digs his own grave on his own plot, and, committing suicide, is buried there without benefit of clergy.

A penitent sinner, who purchased a piece of property lately on the West Side, in the hope of making a modest (but as he now recognizes illegal) profit from his investment, asserts that there are at least five hundred petty annoyances, legal and official, to distress a land owner. This may seem enough to make the crime of buying and selling real estate a transaction sufficiently onerous, but, thank heaven, in case criminals are not utterly repressed by these penalties, a new way of harassing them has lately been discovered, and we hope all the City Departments will proceed at once to put it into operation.

This novel vexation might be named "The Spook Punishment," for it consists in the occasional emission from official headquarters of startling revelations, calculated to so frighten the public that real estate is seized, for them, with a sort of epidemic quality. This is accomplished by surrounding it with an element of fatal uncertainty, so that it shall be shunned and feared.

The newspapers, using the name of the Building Department, we are glad to see, were able, this week, to work the "Spook Racket" in a startling and masterly way. It was worked around Mr. Constable's name with big black headlines and with a crackling of adjectives. The spectre, according to the reporters, was brought down-town under his coat by the Superintendent of Buildings to a little conference which the Mayor held over some little trouble that the Department had with a builder—another vile owner of real estate. Here it was that Mr. Constable's spectre cried: "Mr. Mayor, there are 3,200 buildings in the City of New York which are ABSOLUTELY UNSAFE. Seven of which I have found necessary to watch continually. They are some of our largest buildings." It is needless to indicate how a spook who has anything to say of this character gets reported in our irresponsible press.

Another dig had been given to real estate. Three thousand two hundred buildings absolutely unsafe! Mind, ABSOLUTELY UNSAFE. Not out of repair, not somewhat defective, not even dangerous. No, these buildings are ABSOLUTELY UNSAFE—that is, ready to fall, on the point of toppling in, held together as it were, by the merest thread, which might break at any moment, and then your limbs are done for, your body mutilated or your life itself crushed out of you. Seven of these it has been necessary to watch continually! What superb activity! But who is watching the other 3193 "absolutely unsafe" buildings? Suppose there are only twenty residents in each. Here we have 64,000 lives in imminent and deadly peril. What a startling example of the carelessness of people and the happy-go-lucky disposition of the times! Nearly 64,000 people on the brink of catastrophy, and yet no pale faces or trembling knees. If only we had a list of the seven buildings "watched continually," at least 80 people, according to our average, might feel thoroughly secure and happy. Then all of the rest of the City would be in risk, for who could tell which are the other 3,193 buildings "absolutely unsafe"? We would advocate the immediate publication of the location of these "absolutely unsafe buildings." But this, while positively damaging several million dollars' worth of property, would remove the spook from real estate in general, so that any criminally minded person could buy certain pieces of real estate without having any of those fears as to stability of the structures erected thereon, fears which would exist if what Mr. Constable is supposed to have proclaimed is not defined.

Mr. Constable, according to the papers, has other spooks ready to work. In about five years, he is reported to have said, if the present practice of erecting enormously high buildings is continued, the present systems of water and drainage will be so overtaxed, then an epidemic of disease may break out at any time, and a plague will be bred along the water front. There is something crude about the manufacture of spooks of this kind. They are nothing like as damaging as the 3,200 "absolutely unsafe" buildings, seven guarded all the time. Still, perhaps if the sewer racket and the plague-along-the-water-front racket were worked in conjunction with the Department of Public Works and the Health Board, something really effective could be made out of them. The Department of Public Works is engaged at present in having a little fun with real estate owners; and the Health Board, we know, is an old-time master at dealing with the criminals. By all means let us hurry the process of extermination. Let us knock the bottom out of real estate. The newspapers are on the right track. So are our officials. Mr. Constable didn't say what he is reported to have said, but that matters little to a sensational press. Besides, although wrong this time in attributing to Mr. Constable what he did not say, we all know our officials are not inclined just now to deal lightly with real estate. We shall all agree with Henry George pretty soon. What the prophet could not bring to pass, the official way. Real estate will become good a thing not to own.

ON one day the Board of Aldermen granted a franchise to the Consumers' Gas Fuel, Heat and Power Company for laying pipes in all the streets of this city, and also appointed a committee "to make a thorough investigation of the feasibility and practicability of municipal ownership of gas plants, the cost of manufacturing gas as now carried on by the existing companies, the price at which the city could deliver gas to the inhabitants thereof, should it become the owner of the gas plants, together with all other material facts in connection therewith that may be deemed necessary by said committee to give information to the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of this city on the matter in question;" and to prepare a bill to be presented to the Legislature of this State to carry out their recommendations in that behalf and vigorously urge the passage of same in the interests of this city and its inhabitants. To the ordinary mind it would appear that it would be wisest to make this investigation before granting privileges to new companies, and thereby increasing the franchises which will have to be purchased if the city decides to provide its own gas. Of course, the granting of such an unlimited privilege to the Consumers' Gas Company is creating a great scandal, and it is expected that Mayor Strong will veto the resolution by which it was done. We think he will be safe in doing this, because, while there may be no real connection between the granting of a franchise, estimated by the President of the Board of Aldermen, who opposed the grant, to be worth $10,000,000, and the intimation that the city contemplates the provision of its own gas, both for lighting and heating, the whole thing is so open to suspicion that it is better that the proposed inquiry be first made.

OWING to the indefensibly high-handed conduct of the Department of Public Works, in tearing up and destroying the gratings over the areas of Mr. Chas. Buek's building at the corner of Amsterdam avenue and 81st street, the whole matter of vault spaces and charges will be taken into the courts. Already a temporay injunction has been issued by the Supreme Court restraining the Department from interfering further with Mr. Buek's operations pending adjudication on the main points in dispute, on a motion for an order argued yesterday before Judge Truax. This is, probably, the very best disposition that could be made of the matter, though it will not include a consideration of the most outrageous part, the destruction of work and material by the employees of the Department. This, it may be remarked, was the Department's response to a perfectly respectful request that the differences between it and the builder be submitted to any court it choose to name. We do not believe that the Department had any warrant in law for destroying the gratings; its remedy, when it feels itself aggrieved, being like that of a private citizen, in appeal to the courts. Moreover, the treatment of individuals by the responsible head of the Department is aggravating and embittering this dispute quite unnecessarily. When a gentleman, highly respected by all who know him, who is not only willing but anxious to obey the law if he can but find out what it is, and who was taking a perfectly legitimate and proper course to inform himself of it, is told that he is undeserving of consideration by the Department, and would not receive any, he may doubt whether he is living and doing business in New York or in St. Petersburg. Neither he or anyone who hears of it will think better of the Department because of it. For gratuitous personal effronts from men in office there is no remedy, but for the wilful destruction of property without legal authority there is, and doubtless it will be sought for in this case. However, the case as it concerns the building trade generally, as we have before stated, is now in the courts, and the trade can look forward to a satisfactory solution of the difficulties created by the arbitrary rulings of the Department. The position of the city in the matter of vaults is a very uncertain one. Several suits for penalties for violations of the ordinances relating to them are hung up in the courts because the city hesitates, doubtless for good reasons, to push them to trial. We may now expect to get a fuller, fairer and better understanding of the rights on either side, and meantime the individual who has been made to suffer has the sympathy, and can doubtless have also more substantial support from his fellow members of the building trade.

For a New Hall of Records

So far as attendance, enthusiasm, spirit and business-like dispatch were concerned, the meeting to procure the erection of a new Hall of Records, held at the Real Estate Exchange on Tuesday last, was a pronounced success. The attendance of from 250 to 300 included prominent real estate lawyers, presidents of the title guarantee companies and of savings banks, and representative real estate brokers and agents and builders. Among the real estate men were: Messrs. Douglas Robinson, John F. Doyle, Horace S. Ely, Alfred E. Marling, S. F. Jayne, Richard V. Harnett, Frank R. Houghton, Richard Deeves, J. Edgar Leaycraft, L. J. Phillips, Wm. M. Ryan, James M. Varnum, B. L. Kennelly, Fredk. A. Snow, Ferdinand Fish, Harris Mandelbaum, David L. Phillips, Walter Stabler, Wm. C. Orr, John S. Mapes, John Carlin, Myer S. Isaacs, Wm. H. Whiting, Clarence J. Ramsey, R. L. Nicholson, R. Nicholson, Remsen Darling, W. H. Bleecker, Jacob Katz, and Herbert A. Sherman. The success of the meeting was due to the good work of the temporary organization described in our last two issues, and to volunteer effort on the part of others. For instance, Mr. Clarence H. Kelsey, President of the Title Guarantee and Trust Co., sent out a large number of circulars and letters requesting the patrons and friends of his company to attend the meeting and to join the association.

Mr. S. Stanwood Menken called the meeting to order and said the membership of the association numbered over 2,000. The Association for Securing the Erection of a New Register's Office or Hall of Records was made permanent with officers as follows:

President, John D. Crimmins; Secretary, Thomas H. Baskerville; Treasurer, Geo. F. Butterworth; Executive Committee—S. Stanwood Menken chairman, Sidney Ward, Noah C. Rogers, Geo. M. MacKellar, Gibson Putzel, Douglas Robinson, Alfred E. Marling, S. V. R. Cruger, Frederick Southack, Myer S. Isaacs, Henry Morgenthau, William Manice, William C. Orr, Ferdinand Schack, Frederick A. Snow, and John F. Doyle. Vice-Presidents—Ex-Judge Henry E. Howland, John Harsen Rhoades, Elihu Root, E. Ellery Anderson, James M. Varnum, John Duer, Eugene A. Philbin, John E. Parsons, Wheeler H. Peckham, Edward W. Coggeshall, Clarence H. Kelsey, Richard V. Harnett, A. D. Juilliard, Hugh J. Grant, Daniel G. Rollins, John A. Stewart, Franklin B. Lord, Harvey E. Fisk, Ferdinand Levy, Edward Lauterbach, Charles S. Fairchild, James C. Carter, Horace S. Ely, John A. McCall, L. J. Phillips, John M. Bowers, John Jacob Astor, Ernest Hall, E. W. Bloomingdale, Henry Lewis Morris, Jefferson M. Levy, James L. Wells, John Webber, Henry W. Eaton, Sigmund Neustadt, Charles E. Strong, Michael J. Coleman, William C. Sturges, James McMahon, David L. Einstein, George G. Williams, Charles A. Peabody, Jr., John De Witt Warner, F. DeP. Foster, J. Evarts Tracy, Wilbur Larremore, Merritt Trimble, William Mann and Charles C. Beaman.

In the absence of Mr. Crimmins, who had intended to be present but was detained in Washington on business, whence he wired his own approval of the movement, and that of Joseph H. Choate also, the first named Vice-President, Judge Howland, took the chair. Elihu Root offered the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas The safe preservation of the records of all instruments affecting titles for real estate in this city is of the greatest importance, and the destruction of such records by fire would work irreparable loss and cause untold confusion; and whereas, the present Register's Office or Hall of Records in this city, by reason of its age, inadequate space, inflammable nature and poor sanitary condition, is totally unfit and unsafe to be the repository of such valuable records; and whereas, in the other large cities of the United States, the real estate records are kept in fireproof buildings specially adapted for the purpose; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That this association take such action as may be necessary to secure the speedy erection of a new fireproof municipal building in this city adapted to safely preserve the rapidly accumulating records affecting titles to real estate, and for the convenient examination of the same, and commensurate with the growing needs of so large a city, and to that end that a suitable committee be appointed by the president to confer with the city and State authorities and take such further action as they may deem advisable for the accomplishment of the above purpose.

These were unanimously adopted, as was also a resolution proposed by J. Harsen Rhoades calling upon the Mayor and Sinking Fund Commission to "secure without delay accommodations in a fireproof building for the contents of the present Register's Office, and to have such [illegible] placed in such building in or upon fireproof receptacles when they may remain properly arranged until such time [illegible] building is erected, adapted not only for the care and [illegible] records as now exist, and for all that are to [illegible] and for the proper accommodation of the records now on file and to be hereafter filed in the Surrogate's and County Clerk's Offices." The chairman was authorized to appoint a committee of nine to present the last resolution to the city authorities named.

In the course of the speeches delivered on the resolutions some interesting statements were made. The history of the building was thus given: Built in 1758 as a Provosts' jail, it was used as such until the Revolution, and then became a military prison. After the Revolution, it became a debtor's jail again, and continued in that capacity until 1830, when it was reconstructed in external and internal appearance and converted into a municipal building. Much stress was laid upon the confusion and loss that would be occasioned by the destruction of the muniments of title stored in the building. Attention was drawn to the fact that the legal firms and the title companies who would benefit most in the event of the destruction of the official records of titles, as they would be the only recourse for substantiating title in that event, were among the most enthusiastic supporters of this movement. Naturally, the building itself came in for much abuse, the most telling and epigrammatic phrases in this line with the names of their authors being:

S. Stanwood Menken: "A veritable fire trap."

Judge Howland: "Originally a prison, now a pigstye."

Elihu Root: "A jail before, during and since the Revolution, and now the repository of the accumulated filth of generation after generation."

General Varnum: "Accessible to fire from within and without."

E. Ellery Anderson: "Not fit to be used as a barn for the storage of hay and old carts."

C. N. Bovee, Jr.: "A stench in the municipal nostrils."

Ex-Register Levy: "From three years' occupancy of the building I can say that every word spoken in condemnation of it today is true."

The meeting has already had practical result, because the day after it was held the Sinking Fund Commission appointed a committee, consisting of the Mayor, Comptroller and Alderman Olcott to look for a site for a new building for the records.

Real Estate Market.

It looks to have been hard work this week for the brokers to close transactions involving an aggregate consideration of about $1,450,000, and it is now conceded that the remaining weeks of 1896 are booked as dull ones. The purchases of the past few days are, however, encouraging in one respect—they embrace practically every grade of realty that the city can boast of. Vacant lots have been in fair demand, but not, except in one or two instances, with any intention of immediate improvement. Flats and tenements lead in the purchases of the week, and there is evidence of a moderate inquiry having been experienced for dwellings. Business property failed to sustain the record it made during the previous six days.

Geo. R. Read's continuation sale on Monday of lots belonging to the estate of the late Maria L. Travers, under the direction of the executors, was the auction event of a week, the business of which would otherwise have been uninteresting on account of a surfeit of unattractive legal sales. The attendance on Monday was remarkably large and so much greater than at the first sale on Thursday of last week as to remind auction followers of the palmy days of the Real Estate Exchange when it enjoyed a monopoly of sales under the hammer. The bidders and consequently the buyers were exceedingly pertinacious throughout the day and showed such a decided propensity toward bargain prices that at one time it was decided to stop the sale. It was continued, however, after the decision was announced, by a lot being put up at the request of one of the audience. Several other lots were then offered in succession, and as they sold at somewhat better prices than had previously prevailed, the offering proceeded until 6:45 o'clock p. m., at which hour every lot shown on the auction pamphlet had been sold, except a tract of 52, lying between the Bronx River and the N. Y. C. & H. R. R. R., Harlem Division, for which no demand was shown. The second sale covered 252 lots including the resale of five that had been knocked down on the first day. The auctioneer's returns showed a total of $150,275 as the result of the day's work. That amount added to the revised figures for the first day, gives a total of $244,410 obtained for the entire 403 lots disposed of. The sale proved the most important that has taken place since the Morgenthau syndicate's auction of 411 lots on Washington Heights, May 26, 1891. At its conclusion, the executors of the estate expressed their satisfaction with the result.

The legal sales at the Broadway Salesroom were more numerous than for a long time past, but as the various properties were not distinguished for merit, they attracted only slight attention from the good-sized crowds that were present daily. The reason for their assembling was largely a desire to forward real estate deals of a private nature and to some extent the knowledge of an ever-existing chance of being able to purchase at a low figure a parcel that the parties in interest might allow to go by default. Only one sale took place at public auction, and that was of a 3d avenue leasehold, disposed of by William Kennelly on Tuesday. On that day also there were withdrawn from foreclosure sale, No. 140 West 78th street, by Philip A. Smyth, and No. 52 East 121st street, by Bryan L. Kennelly. On Wednesday the latter auctioneer offered for private account Nos. 414 and 416 West 56th street, and after receiving a final bid of $15,000 from a representative of the owner for No. 416, announced the withdrawal of both parcels. There were again two withdrawals from foreclosure sale. They comprised No. 124 East 84th street, by J. L. Wells and a 100-foot plot on Duncomb avenue, by Philip A. Smyth.

On the same day Peter F. Meyer & Co. submitted for bidding the building and lot, 19.7x60, No. 404 6th avenue, east side, 79.2 feet south of 25th street. The property was sold for the third time under one decree in partition. The latter was secured early in the fall of 1895 in an action brought for the sale of property owned by the estate of Geo. G. Sickles, father of the ever-youthful Gen. Daniel E. Sickels. The sale took place in October and comprising a large number of parcels widely distributed throughout the city, was one of the most successful of the season. No. 404 6th avenue was one of them and it was knocked down at $41,100 to a bidder who subsequently objected to closing the purchase in consequence of the discovery of the existence in a very old deed of a clause restricting the property, and the entire square block as well, against being used for business of any description. His objection was pronounced valid by the courts and a second sale was ordered for April last by the referee. The property was then sold for $36,000, subject to the covenant of restriction which had been ignored for so long a period by the owners in the neighborhood as to have practically become inoperative. The new buyer discovered a second and equally potent reason for not taking title when a survey disclosed that the building encroached from one to four inches upon the territory of its neighbors, and that they, after the neighborly fashion of animate creatures, had not been backward in appropriating portions of the lot of No. 404, for the greater accommodation of their own amplitude. This second objection was also sustained when explained in court in an action decided in June. The result was the third sale this week, and as it is believed that the revised terms of sale recited by the auctioneer covered every possible obstacle and the buyer could not fail to understand exactly what disabilities the property labors under, it is probable that the much-discussed piece of realty has finally found a new owner. The price at which he secured it was $32,000, and in view of the previous knockdowns it looks to be a very low one.

On Thursday Richard V. Harnett & Co. again adjourned, this time to the 24th inst., a foreclosure sale of No. 3097 3d avenue, corner of 158th street, and at the Real Estate Exchange withdrew in consequence of no bids being received Nos. 95 and 97 Clinton place, offered at public auction. Yesterday J. L. Wells adjourned until the 23d inst., a foreclosure sale of No. 134 West 3d street.

Samuel F. Jayne, First Vice-President of the Real Estate Exchange, has reconsidered his recent acceptance of a renomination as director, and notified the Committee on Nominations to that effect. Mr. Jayne has been a member of the Board for several years, and one of the most energetic officers of the Exchange. Alfred T. White, of Wm. A. White & Sons, has been selected for the vacancy created on the ticket, and has signified his acceptance of the honor.

D. Phoenix Ingraham will sell at auction on Tuesday next, the 15th inst., in the Broadway Salesroom, a number of valuable parcels which are described in his announcement in our business pages, and of which maps and full details can be had at his office.

These offerings will include a plot 50x199.10 on 187th street, between 11th and Audubon avenues, running through to 188th street; a Fort George plot containing about 13 lots on Hillside avenue and Ellwood street, including a corner; No. 163 Bowery and No. 133 Chrystie street. The auctioneer sets out the various attractions of these parcels in the announcement previously referred to which should be attentively read.

Richard V. Harnett & Co.'s auction sale by order of the estate of the late John T. Wilson, announced last week, will consist of the Fulton street parcel only,the Park avenue and East 34th street parcel having been withdrawn. The one remaining is a valuable piece of investment property located on Fulton, northeast corner of Gold street. It consists of a large plot and buildings thereon known as Nos. 73, 75, 77 and 79, on the first-named street. It will be sold on Tuesday next, the 15th inst., at the Real Estate Exchange, No. 59 Liberty street. At the same time and place Messrs. Harnett will sell the private dwelling, No. 109 West 70th street., and on the following day, Wednesday, the 16th inst., also at the Real Estate Exchange, the residence No. 59 East 59th street, which can be viewed on the days preceding the sale from 9 to 11 a. m., and from 2 to 4 p. m. Further particulars of all these offerings can be found on another page, or obtained, with maps, etc., of the auctioneers at Nos. 71 and 73 Liberty street.

William Kennelly's auction offerings for Tuesday next, the 15th inst., are given in our advertising pages. They consist of Nos. 542 and 633 2d avenue, Nos. 340 and 342 East 36th street, and the leasehold No. 67 West 49th street. The place of their sale is the Real Estate Salesroom, No. 111 Broadway, at which address is also the auctioneer's office, where inquiries may be made for full descriptions of these parcels, terms of sale, maps, etc.

Bryan L. Kennelly, as stated in our last issue, will on Wednesday next, the 16th inst., offer at auction, in the Real Estate Salesroom, No. 111 Broadway, two valuable business parcels. They are: Nos. 110 and 112 Nassau street, and No. 43 Ann street. The first is a four-story and cellar brick business building, located on Nassau street, near Ann, on lot 37.9x87.2x irregular, and the second a similar building, on lot 15.1x36, forming an "L." The sale will be without reserve and 65 per cent. of the purchase money may remain on bond and mortgage at 4½ per cent. for one, two or three years. Further details are given in our business pages, and the auctioneer's office is at No. 66 Liberty street, where every inquiry will be answered and maps can be obtained on application.

SALE OF THE CORBIN FIFTH AVENUE PROPERTY.

Geo. R. Read announces the auction sale of the Corbin property, on the northeast corner of 5th avenue and 38th street, for Wednesday next, the 16th inst., in the Real Estate Exchange, No. 59 Liberty street. This is not only very valuable property, but the fact that it includes what was the town residence of the late Austin Corbin for many years, until the time of his death, will give additional interest to an occasion that brings it under the hammer. The sale is by order of the executors of the estate of the late railroad magnate, and it includes No. 425 5th avenue, a three-story and basement brownstone residence, with the ample front of 44 feet 5 inches on 5th avenue and a depth of 70 feet, on lot 100 feet deep; No. 427 5th avenue, a four-story and basement brownstone residence 16.6x55x one-story extension x 100; No. 1 East 38th street, a three-story stable, 25x80x98.9. The dimensions of the whole plot are 60.11x100 with "L" 25x98.9. A good many suggestions will come to the minds of our readers as to what may be done with a piece of property of such proportions, located so advantageously for profitable use. Inquiries for further particulars should be directed to the auctioneer at either No. 9 Pine street or No. 1 Madison avenue, where also maps, etc., may be obtained.

Jas. L. Brumley will offer at executor's sale in the Brooklyn Real Estate Exchange on Thursday next, the 17th inst., a number of valuable Brooklyn parcels. A list of these will be found on another page, and full particulars with maps are obtainable at the office of the auctioneer at No. 189 Montague street, Brooklyn.

Gossip of the Week.

SOUTH OF 59TH STREET.

The Institution for Savings of Merchants' Clerks has purchased from the Ruggles estate the four-story building with lot, 26x125, No. 24 Union Square, east side, 52 feet north of 16th street. The bank has for many years been located at No. 20, on the northeast corner of the Square and 16th street, in a building purchased by it a long time ago, together with an adjoining property, 25x103.3, fronting on the latter. In April of last year the institution acquired by purchase from W. Emlen Roosevelt, at $82,850, the adjacent four-story iron store with lot, 26x125, No. 22 Union Square. It is now the owner of a site, 78x150x103.3x irregular, and will probably soon begin the erection of a handsome building that will practically cover the entire plot.

Julius Friend has sold for Weil & Mayer the recently completed seven-story mercantile building, 53x100, on the northeast corner of Spring and Wooster streets, at a price not much less than $225,000. The name of the buyer has not been disclosed.

Max Danziger and William Hyams have sold to Simon Herman, as representative of the Germania Bank, the three-story brick store and loft building with lot, 60x100x39x101.3, Nos. 190 to 194 Bowery, northwest corner of Spring street, for $80,000. A new bank, office and manufacturing building is to be erected at an early date. The property was purchased by Mr. Danziger at auction in February for $70,800, a price that was conceded at the time to be a very low one. Subsequently Mr. Hyams acquired a half interest from the auction buyer.

Joseph L. Buttenwieser has bought of Dr. Martin Burke, for improvement, the old four-story tenement and rear buildings, with lot 25x125, No. 535 3d avenue, between 35th and 36th streets. The same builder, it will be remembered, purchased, a few months ago, also for improvement, the adjoining property, No. 533.

Pincus Lowenfeld and William Prager have purchased from William L. Brown at a price close to $65,000, the plot 50x75, with four and five-story tenements, on the northwest corner of Stanton and Clinton streets, with the adjoining tenement, 25x60x75, No. 25 Clinton street.

We learn from the managers of the New York Realty Exchange that we were in error last week when quoting $20,000 as the contract price agreed upon in the purchase by Dominick Abbate of No. 120 Mott street. The correct price is $24,000. The same Exchange has since sold the four-story brick tenement with stores on a triangular lot, 42x48.5x40.5, No. 8 Mulberry street, southeast corner of Worth street, for William Hartfield to E. A New Fire-Proof Building.

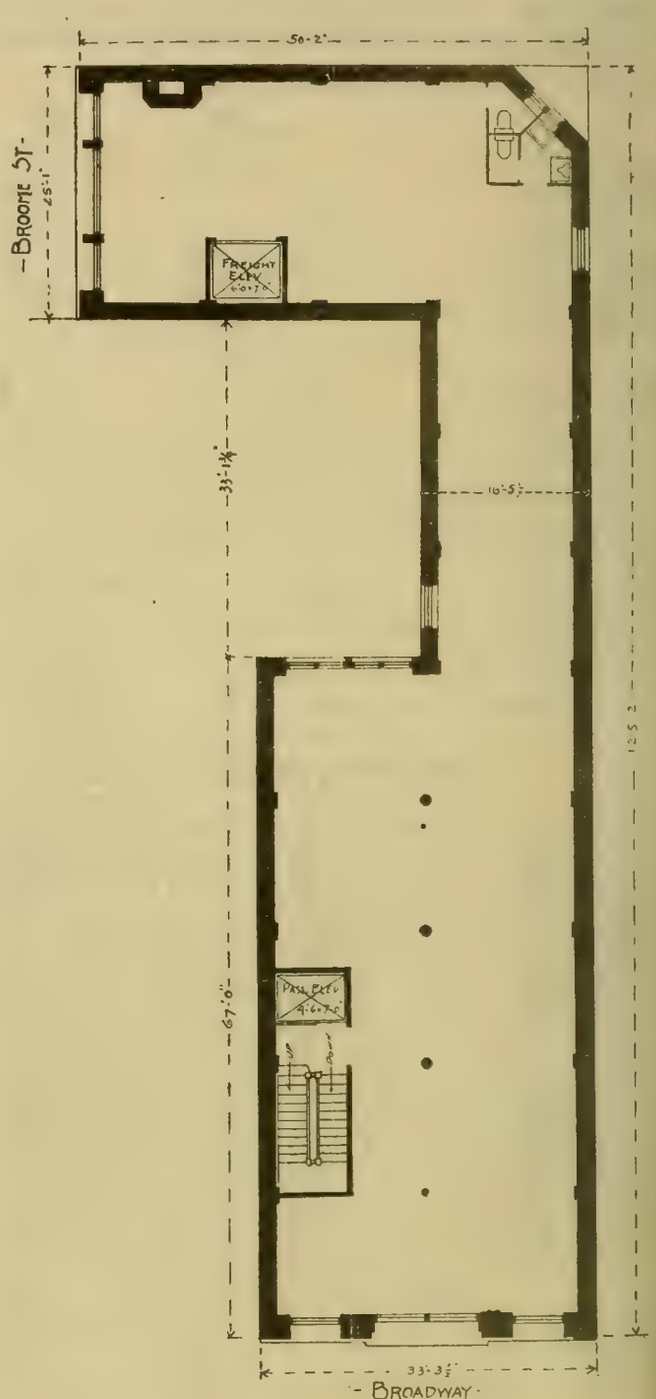
STORE AND LOFTS NOW BEING FINISHED AT NOS. 491 AND 493 BROADWAY AND NO. 446 BROOME STREET.



Jere C. Lyons, the well-known builder, is now completing the interior work on his new and handsome store and loft building, Nos. 491 and 493 Broadway, and No. 446 Broome street. The design of the Broadway elevation will be seen from the illustration accompanying this article. The material is Indiana limestone, and the same stone with pressed yellow brick is used on Broome street.

The building has the advantage of every modern improvement in construction and when finished will contain all the facilities and advantages for the rapid transaction of business that are demanded by the enterprise of the day. It consists of twelve stories, basement and sub-basement. It is fireproof throughout, and occupies a lot 33.3½x125.2 on Broadway, with an L 25.1x33.8 on Broome street. The store and lofts are open through, the main entrance being on Broadway, while freight is to be handled on Broome street, the entrance to the elevator there being on a level with the street. Each floor will be finished in plaster and the main hallway and stairway for two stories in marble. Two capacious electric elevators will be immediately installed. Each floor is to be furnished with an independent electric light and gas service, lavatory, etc., while steam heat will be supplied throughout the building.

This building is most advantageously located, not only by reason of its being on the greatest business thoroughfare in the city, but also because it is in one of the busiest sections of the dry-goods district. The Broadway cable railway runs past the door and the elevated railroads are nearby, affording, with cross-town surface cars, rapid communications with every part of the city. Everything will be completed and in order for the reception of tenants on Feb. 1 next, and already some of the lofts are let, showing that their desirability has not escaped the attention of live and progressive people. The builder's address is No. 81 East 125th street.

CONVEYANCES.

Wherever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it.

The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the Deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Wherever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for further particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

NEW YORK.

BRICKS.—There has been some irregularity to the market for Hudson River brick. The low grades have not been wanted and sales of poorly washed brick have been made at low prices, transactions having been reported at as low as $3.50 per M. For the ordinary run of brick, however, there have been no changes in values, as the range of prices has continued from $3.87½ to $4.25. The better grades have received increased attention and receivers have been enabled to work off a fair percentage of the accumulated supplies in their hands, the supply now being carried over daily not exceeding 15 barges. Arrivals have continued fairly large, as manufacturers have been shipping as fast as they have been able to obtain boats. The quotations for good to choice brick have been unchanged, ranging from $4.37½ to $4.75, and special have continued at $5. There have been no changes of an important nature in the market for pale brick. The desirable grades have had a moderate call, and have sold at $1.75@2.00, but the poorer qualities have not been wanted and have been quoted at $1.25@1.50. Jersey brick has had little call, but offerings have been small and prices have been unchanged and steady at $3.75@4.00, according to quality.

CEMENT.—There was not much of a market. Demand, as is natural at this season of the year, is small, but there were no excessive supplies on the market, and demand was sufficient to absorb offerings, prices holding steady at 75@80c. for Rosendale. Both the domestic and foreign makes of Portland cement have had a moderate call and have sold at steady prices.

GLASS.—Indications are considered favorable for a good, healthy market for window glass during the entire coming season. With the opening of next week manufacturers have officially announced that they will begin blowing. It is thought that it will take several months for jobbers to replenish their stock of glass and that the remainder of the time up to July 1, usually the end of the active season for manufacturing, will be consumed in restocking the factories. Plate glass has continued to meet with a fair trade and prices have ruled firm.

IRON AND STEEL. There has been less activity to the trading in the market for pig iron, in fact, the volume of business transacted has been somewhat disappointing, and while no changes have been made in quoted values, prices at this writing were somewhat uncertain on disquieting rumors which were in circulation. We quote at $12.50@13.00 per ton for No. 1 X foundry, $12.00@12.50 for No. 2 X do., $11.50@12.00 for No. 2 plain, and $11.00@11.50 for Gray Forge. No changes have occurred in the market for old material. Only a very moderate amount of business has been transacted, but there has been no attempt to force business, and values have held fairly steady. We quote at $12.50@13.00 for old iron rails; $11.00@11.50 for No. 1 wrought scrap; $11.00@11.50 for cast scrap; $10.50@11.50 for old carwheels, and $6.00@9.00 for borings, stove plate, etc. Nothing of importance has transpired in the market for manufactured iron. Only a very moderate number of orders have been placed, but the general tone has held about steady. Steel rails have been quiet and unchanged at $28 f. o. b. mill.

LATH.—It has been a small and uninteresting market. The offerings have been limited, as the arrivals have been light, and the supplies on the way have been reported as small. Demand has been slow, and the limited amount of business transacted has been at unchanged prices, principally at $1.50, although, in a small way, sales have been made at $1.55, and a few carload lots have gone at as high as $1.60.

LIME.—At the declines latterly quoted in prices the market during the past week has held fairly steady. The supply of Eastern has been limited and concentrated in few hands, who have shown no disposition to hurry business. Demand, however, has been quiet. Common Rockland has been unchanged at 60c., and finishing do. at 70c. There have been arrivals of two cargoes of St. John lime. One was sold early in the week at prices ranging from 50c. to 55c., and at these prices the market was quoted steady. There have been no offerings of common slate lime, and the price quoted has been wholly nominal. Jointa has been unchanged, at steady, at $1, at which price a limited business has been transacted.

LUMBER.—There have been no changes of an important nature in the general situation of the market. The opening of Congress and the President's message has been a topic of considerable interest to the trade generally. The attitude taken by the latter on the Cuban question was about as anticipated, but it was evident from the tenor of the message that it would be practically useless for the present Congress to legislate upon tariff, inasmuch as the administration is of the belief that the present Wilson bill has not had a fair trial and should be left alone for the present. There has appeared to be, however, a growing impression that an extra session of Congress will be called immediately after the inauguration and that the tariff question will be taken up. A large meeting of the lumber trade is to be held in Cincinnati next week for the purpose of furthering plans to have the tariff restored on lumber.

The situation of the market for Eastern spruce has undergone no changes of an important nature. The volume of business transacted has been limited, owing to the small offerings, as the shipments to this market have continued very moderate and buyers find that to obtain extensive supplies it is necessary to pay a further advance in values. Advices from the provinces reported firm markets and a further advance of 50c. has been reported in the price of deal at which it is stated a large contract has latterly been placed. A moderate number of orders have been placed for state spruce and prices have ruled steady. West Virginia spruce has had a limited call in car load lots at unchanged values.

No noteworthy changes have occurred in the market for white pine. The volume of business transacted has not been large; still a moderate number of orders for limited sized lots have been placed. The coarse grades have been taken at full quoted values, and the better grades, which have been in light supply, have in instances brought rather extreme prices.

The market for yellow and North Carolina pine has shown considerable firmness. There has been a steady gain in the volume of business transacted since the period of depression preceding the national election and during the past week there has been some show of activity to the trading, as fairly large transactions have been made. Included in the sales was a lot of 2,000,000 ft. which changed hands on Saturday, and full market prices were paid, showing an advance of 50c. to $1 per M. from the prices ruling a month ago.

Only a very moderate amount of business has been transacted in the market for hemlock. Advices from the mills, however, have reported an increasing demand at strong prices and there has been no attempt on the part of sellers to hurry business in the local market. Values have been without changes and firm. The call for cypress has been rather limited, but there has continued a fairly good tone, as sellers have confidence in the future prospects of the market.

There were no new features in the market for hardwoods. The demand for house trim has continued of moderate proportions. Slightly more interest has been shown by some of the other trades, but they have not as yet increased their purchases to a material extent. Oak, both plain and quartered, has had a fair call and there have been a moderate number of orders received for poplar. Chestnut has received some attention. Mahogany has held steady and a few unimportant transactions have been made. Other woods have been quiet, but values as a rule have been steadily maintained.

The "Mississippi Valley Lumberman" says:

A conference of committees from all of the lumber manufacturers' associations of the country is to be held at the suggestion of the Southern Lumber Manufacturers' Association, which took the initiative and appointed a committee at its recent meeting at Memphis. It has been decided to hold the meeting in Cincinnati, O., Tuesday, Dec. 15. The two leading white pine organizations have quickly signified their approval of the plan and objects of the conference, and have appointed strong committees to represent them at the Cincinnati meeting. Such men as W. H. Laird, president of the association; S. T. McKnight, of Minneapolis; Wm. Irvine, of Chippewa Falls, Wis.; B. F. Nelson, of Minneapolis, Artemus Lamb, of Clinton, Ia.; and J. Newton Nind, of Minneapolis, secretary of the association, make up the Mississippi Valley Lumbermen's association committee. Equally strong is the Wisconsin Valley Lumbermen's association's committee, consisting of Messrs. C. A. Goodyear, Chicago; C. C. Yawkey, of Hazelhurst, Wis.; D. D. Flanner, of Rhinelander; Walter Alexander, of Wausau, and W. G. Collar, of Merrill. Without doubt Duluth, Ashland and other lake lumber ports will have a strong representation at the meeting in Cincinnati. They are equally as much interested in the restoration of the tariff on lumber as the manufacturers of the interior, and have always been free in expressing their wishes in the matter.

Lumber manufacturers should bear in mind that hard personal work is necessary in bringing about a restoration of the tariff on lumber imports. Exactly what is wanted must be decided upon at the Cincinnati meeting. Undoubtedly an effort will be made to secure the passage of the so-called Dingley bill at the final session of the 54th Congress which convenes next week, but it only provides for a duty of 60 cents a thousand on rough lumber, while the McKinley duty was $1, and previous to the passage of the McKinley bill the duty was $2 a 1,000 ft. It is doubtful whether the passage of the Dingley bill can be secured, and also whether it is advisable for the lumber trade to advocate its passage, as it does not place a sufficiently high tariff on lumber to suit the needs of the occasion. The next congress, in special session, if one is called, will immediately take up the tariff question, and the adoption of the Dingley bill might have the effect of preventing a higher tariff, than it provides for, being placed on lumber. There are many questions of this nature that must be seriously considered by the conference in Cincinnati, as well as the ways and means of impressing on the members of the congress the needs of the lumber trade. But with all there must be a great deal of personal work done with our representatives in congress, and it devolves upon lumbermen in all sections to do their part.

Supt. Parent of the Menominee River Boom Co., estimates the log crop of the Menominee and its tributaries for the winter at 300,000,000 ft. This is more than the most optimistic had hoped for. It is 45,000,000 ft. less than last year. About Dec. 15 logging in this district will be in full blast. The very cold weather has frozen the swamps solid and that means the best possible logging roads.

John E. Nelligen of the Tarel River Logging Co., reports that two of his camps are now hauling logs to the landways over good roads. All the other logging and lumber companies are now pushing men to the woods, and what promised to be a very dull season is developing into a fairly active one.

The Douglass Lumber Co. is banking logs in St. Croix Lake, via their logging railroad in a rapid manner. They expect to bank about 25,000,000 ft. of logs the coming winter.

Abe Johnson has put in a crew of men on Yellow River, and will bank about 2,500,000 ft. of logs. His will be the only camp on that stream the coming winter.

It is reported from Marinette, Wis., that the Fence River Logging Co. will put in about 20,000,000 ft. of logs during the winter, while before the election they had only expected to put in about 6,000,000 ft. Of the 20,000,000 ft., 13,000,000 will be for the H. Witbeck Co., and the balance for themselves.

The Glenwood Manufacturing Co., of Glenwood, Wis., has three camps working at Clear Lake, Wis. They will get out about 7,000,000 ft. of oak logs.

The "Northwestern Lumberman" says of northern pine:

A large amout of logs have been left over. In the Duluth district it is estimated that there are logs unsawed to the extent of 200,000,000 ft. This should restrain ambition to operate in the woods too heavily this season. The demand will not be illimitable, though without doubt larger than it was this year. But if manufacturers would realize the higher prices they are looking for they should be careful not to overdo logging or manufacture. They should realize that an eager south is making preparations to capture a large slice of the trade, and that their lumber has made serious encroachments in the northern field, at very low prices. Besides, northern operators have their stumpage values to protect, which will be weakened by an oversupply of lumber salable only at low prices.

There is every prospect that the mills at Cheboygan will be fairly well stocked with logs next season. Pelton & Reid have 2,000,000 in boom and expect to bring logs to the mill by rail during the winter. The W. & A. McArthur Company has 12,000,000 ft. of old logs in Canada. Thompson Smith's Sons carry over 18,000,000 ft., and will have a total stock of 25,000,000 ft. for next season.

The Sturgeon River Lumber Co., of Chassel, upper Mich., will this season put in 10,000,000 ft. of logs, or about half the input last year. The Nester Estate is the only operator in that district that will put in as many logs as last season, it is said.

The Saginaw Lumber & Salt Co. closed its business for the year Saturday. The company has shipped 20,000,000 ft. of lumber, and the mill has a stock of 18,000,000,000 ft. of logs to start on next season. The company will only put in 5,000,000 to 6,000,000 ft. of logs this winter.

METAL.—There has been a shrinkage in the volume of business transacted in the market for ingot copper, and a slight reduction in values has been made. There has been, however, a fairly large supply going into consumption, as the deliveries to the home trade and for export have been quite heavy. It is estimated that the shipments abroad from the first of the month will amount to fully 5,000 tons. At this writing the market was again showing a slight improvement in tone, and Lake Superior was quoted at 11⅜@11½c. and 11⅛@11⅜c. for other descriptions. Manufactured copper has been in moderate request and steady. We quote: For sheets, 32x72 ins. and 36x96 ins., 16@25c. as to weight; 30x longer than 96 ins., 16@19c.; do 36 x72 ins., 16@26c.; 36x96 ins., 16@25c.; 36x120 ins., 16@26c.; 48x96 ins., 16@24c.; 48x120 ins., 16@22c.; 36x longer than 120 ins., 16@18c.; 48x72 ins., 16@26c.; 48x longer than 120 ins., 16@22c; 60x72 ins., 16@27c.; 60x96 ins., 16@25c.; 60x120 ins., 16@22c.; 60x longer than 120 ins., 16@24c.; 72x96 ins., 16@24c.; 72x144 ins., 16@26c.; 72x longer than 144 ins., 17@24c.; 108x120 ins., 17@25c.; 108x longer than 128 ins., 19@20c.; wider than 108x144 ins., 20@22c.; wider than 108 and longer than 144 ins., 21@24c. Bolt copper ⅜-in. diameter and over, 16c. Circles, segments and pattern sheets, 60 ins. diameter and less, 3c. above prices of sheets of same thickness; circles 60 to 90 do., 4c. do.; circles 96 do. and over, 5c. do. Cold or hard rolled copper, 1@2c. per lb. above the foregoing prices. All polished copper 1c. per lb. advance over cold rolled copper, when 20 ins. wide and under, and 2c. advance when more than 20 ins. wide. Copper bottoms, 20@26c. per lb. There has been a decided falling off in the demand for pig lead, both from the consuming trade and in a speculative way; in fact, the volume of business transacted during the past fortnight has been of very moderate proportions, and there has been a reaction in prices. At this writing, however, there was some improvement in tone, and the close was quoted steady at 2.97½@3.00c. for domestic. Only a very moderate amount of business has been transacted in spelter, and there has been a slight reaction in prices. At this writing the market was quoted quiet at 4.25c. for domestic. The market for Straits tin has been quiet, both in the local market and abroad. The demand from the consuming trade has been slow, and very little speculative interest has been shown. The fluctuations in prices have been within the narrowest limits, and at this writing prices were quoted unchanged from those ruling two weks ago, with 13c. quoted for five-ton lots f. o. b. The competition between American manufacturers of tin plate has continued quite sharp, and for ordinary cokes prices have been weak; terne plates have also been easy. Foreign has been slow, and it has been generaly known that contracts for large lots would be taken at considerably below quoted prices. We quote as follows: I. C. charcoal, Melyn grade, $4.62½; Allaway grade, $3.90. Allaway grade I. X., $4.70; charcoal terne, M. F. grade, 14x20, $5.80@5.90; M. F. grade, 20x28, $11.60@11.70; Worcester grade, 14x20, $4.00@4.05; 20x28, $8.00@8.05; American coke tin, 14x20, $3.30@3.65. American charcoal terne, 14x20, $3.25@3.50, and 20x28, $6.50@7.00; I. C. coke, Bessemer steel, heavy, $3.60@3.90; Bessemer steel, light, 14x20, $3.40@3.55.

NAILS.—There has been a more settled tone to the market for cut and wire nails during the past week. A moderately large amount of business has been transacted, but the demand has been almost exclusively to supply depleted stocks, as the trade has shown little or no disposition to make purchases against future wants. Much satisfaction has expressed throughout the trade with a revised cord. It places 20 to 60 penny nails at the base price and a material reduction has been made in the extras on the small sizes, which it is thought will be of material advantage to the trade. We quote cut nails at $1.40@1.45 per keg for car lots at mill, $1.55 per keg for small parcels from dock and $1.65 from store. Wire, $1.50@1.55 per keg for carload lots at mill, $1.70 for lots from dock and $1.80 from store.

PAINTS, OILS, ETC.—No noteworthy changes have occurred in the general situation of the market for paints. Naturally as the close of the year approaches there is a general disposition shown to wind up contracts and make final settlements. Consequently the volume of business transacted has been only moderate, as demand has been limited to such supplies as have been wanted for immediate consumption. White lead has been taken in limited quantities and some irregularity has been rumored as regards prices. The principal corroders have held steady at unchanged values, but there have been reports to the effect that purchases have been made from independent corroders at slight concessions. Red lead, both foreign and domestic, has continued to meet with a moderate trade at steady values. Litharge also has had a moderate call and prices have ruled steady. Orange minerals and zincs have sold in moderate quantities, and the sales made have been at unchanged values. The Association figures on lead last announced are as follows, subject to change without notice: Pure white lead, dry or in oil, red lead and litharge in kegs, in lots of 500 lbs. and over, 5¼c.; red lead and litharge in barrels and half barrers, ¼c. per lb. less than the price in kegs; white lead (cases), 1c. per lb. over price in kegs; white lead in 25-lb. tin pails (packed in 100-lb. or 200-lb. cases), 1½c. per lb. over price in kegs; white lead, assorted in 1-lb., 2-lb., 3-lb., and 5-lb. cans (packed in 100 or 200-lb. cases), 1½c. per lb. over price in kegs. Terms: On lots of 500 lbs. and over, 60 days, or 2 per cent discount for cash, if paid within 15 days from date of invoice f. o. b. at New York. Special prices for dry white lead in barrels. Quantities: To make either of above assorted quantities and assortments of packages either or all of the articles may be counted. The above prices and terms supersede all previous prices and terms by this company. The position of the market for linseed oil has not changed in any important particulars. In the way of new business practically nothing has been accomplished, for aside from a few peddling orders, demand has been flat, as consumers have shown no disposition to negotiate for round lots and the deliveries on old contracts which have been reported as moderate, have been sufficient to supply the current wants of the trade. Crushers, however, owing to the fact that the price for flaxseed has been fairly maintained have shown no disposition to hurry business and prices have been sturdily held. At this writing the market was quoted firm with American city crushed at 33c. for 5-barrel lots or over, and 34c. for less than 5-barrel lots; do. boiled was at 35@36c. Calcutta was 50c. The market for Western crushed oil has been without new features of importance. Demand has been quiet, but owing to the low prices for oil as compared with the cost of flaxseed, crushers have not been offering oil freely and the market has held steady and 31@32c. have been the prices quoted. There has been a stronger turn to the market for spirits turpentine, particularly for machine barrels. At the close of last week the market was cleaned of all offerings at 27½ and 27¾c., principally at 27½c., and prices have further improved since owing to the small stock in first hands, and in response to stronger advices from the Southern markets. At this writing the market was quoted firm at 28c. Regulators and oil barrels have been in fairly liberal supply, but they have had comparatively little call. Owing, however, to the advance on the price for machine barrels and the firmer advices from the South, values have been quoted higher, and at this writing were at 27¼@27½c. We quote at 27½@29½c. per gallon, according to time and place of delivery, quantity, style of package, etc.

TAR AND PITCH.—The improved demand for tar has subsided and the amount of business transacted for the week has been small. Supplies in first hands have increased slightly and a slight reduction has been made in quotations. Pitch has had only a limited call, but values have held steady. We quote tar at $1.75@$1.80 in pine or Wilmington barrels, $2.50 in pork barrels, and $3.35@$3.40 in oil barrels. Pitch, $1.80@$1.90.

VOL. LVIII. DECEMBER 19, 1896. No. 1,501

THE election of Mr. Alfred E. Marling to the presidency of the Real Estate Exchange will be received with general satisfaction. The choice made must be decidedly popular. It is superfluous for us to speak of Mr. Marling's many strong qualifications for the position; he is so very well known to all our readers. His career has been a marked one for several years past, and no one more than Mr. Marling represents the best traditions of the profession. His election, coupled with that of his associates, promises progress in the administration of the affairs of the Exchange and an active policy regarding the many great interests that centre in that institution.

WHENEVER there are people who think the news we are receiving from Washington lessens the value of their securities, it is eminently fitting and proper that they should entrust their care to wiser folk. This change of guardianship can be easily accomplished through the medium of a stock exchange broker at small immediate cost. What possesses the wild war-horses of the Senate, except wild war-horsiness, it would be pretty hard to say, but there is surely good sense enough in the country to offset whatever the Senatorial blatherskites, talking over their shoulders to the irresponsible and turbulent out-of-doors, may say or do. A year ago the war-horse was on its hind legs, pawing and snorting for gore in the wildest way conceivable, but what came of it? There was more reason for selling securities then than there would be now if the very worst came and the country was forced into war with Spain. But that is not likely. The absurdity of the course that is being pursued by the so-called friends of Cuba will be exposed when we ask, Suppose the Cuban insurgents recognized and a representative for the United States appointed to the government they are supposed to be carrying on, where would that representative find the government to which he is accredited? So far as we have been permitted to judge of the situation, there is no such government, but only some thousands of men in the field, brave and determined, but not by any means necessarily the most responsible, capable or respectable of the Cuban people. Up to now they have shown no quality which entitles them to recognition, except the ability to remain in arms in spite of the large forces sent against them. We think the Government and people of this country will want something more than this before they say, what recognition will really mean, they will put an end to the only government existing on the island and turn the control over to what may only be barbarous guerilla bands. However, whatever may be the political outcome of the Cuban situation, we think the disorganization of the security market, caused thereby, creates a capital opportunity to buy securities for good profits.

WHILE commenting on the Little report upon the Baltimore & Ohio accounts "The Economist," of London, says: "In this country investors whose interests are prejudiced by the fraudulent manipulation of their accounts have certain legal remedies which are not infrequently sought and obtained; but though analagous laws for the punishment of offences of the kind charged against the Baltimore & Ohio directors exist in the United States, they are honored in the breach rather than in the observance. A different state of things will have to prevail before American railroad securities will regain the favor they enjoyed here for many years in spite of frequent losses and disappointment." No doubt this latest exposure of railroad accounting has something to do with the lethargy of the American sections of the European security markets, but rather in the direction of confirming investors in their determination to keep out of them. The prime cause is made up of the imperfections of our currency law and the avowed dishonest intentions of so large a part of our people toward invested capital. The enormous losses of the public in South African mining and kindred securities have a large share in creating the dulness in the share markets of London, Paris and Berlin, and the last named is also awaiting the results of the new bourse law which goes into effect on January 1st. The rancor of the German press and people toward Great Britain is becoming so extreme that, if continued much longer, it cannot fail to injure the trade between the two countries, while the approaching experiment of coercion in the interest of humanity and commerce, though, perhaps, we ought to have said of commerce and humanity, in Turkey, is watched with considerable nervousness and fear of an unfavorable outcome.

IT will be best to wait for the draft of the new charter now being prepared by the Greater New York Commission before expressing an opinion upon it, although the scraps of information, surmises and hints that are allowed to leak out by various sources, taken altogether, may give a fair idea of what it is intended to present to the Legislature. From these it appears that the Mayor is to have the reins of control over the new city's government and its officers almost entirely in his hands. There is to be a municipal assembly containing an upper chamber of thirty-seven members, including the president, and a lower chamber of one hundred and five members. Ten council districts are to be formed, and from these the members of both Council—with the exception of the president, who will be elected at large—and Board of Aldermen will be elected. Five borough boards are to be created, but composed of the members of the municipal assembly elected within their limits, and to have no functions except of an advisory character. The municipal assembly is to be endowed with the powers now possessed by the Board of Aldermen, enlarged by the right to incur debt to a moderate extent and to reduce the estimates. An important functionary to be appointed will be the City Clerk, who will have absolute control of the clerical and routine work of the municipal assembly. Such is the very general idea of the Commission's plan for providing for the administrative part of the city's government, which has been published with some show of authority; but, as we said before, there is no use in discussing it until we know what we are talking about. The practice that is being followed of dropping hints and fragments seems to be designed to obtain public approval of parts of the proposed charter which it would not be easy to obtain if all the details were at once exposed. It is much better for both press and public to await the publication of the draft charter itself before committing themselves to any opinion whatever.

THE announcement of the withdrawal of the Hamburg-American and the North German Lloyd steamship companies from the Galveston trade, because of its unremunerative quality, will not help those who are clamoring for large expenditures in dock improvements in this city, to meet the competition at other places. We do not hear a whisper of an intention of these or other companies to withdraw from New York; on the contrary, the great steamship lines that have no slips on our river fronts are anxious to have them, and those which already have them want more and larger ones. This only serves to show that the dock improvements that are made should be for the purpose of facilitating our present enormous sea-going trade, and providing for its legitimate growth, while leaving to other seaports the trade they have built up, or that they can obtain by fair means. New York need never fear that its port will go without business because of competition at other points, so long as it provides adequate means for the rapid loading and unloading of vessels. This is not because its position is more favorable than others, but because it has always been the great gateway of the foreign trade of the country, and there has been accumulated here the capital necessary to handle it and to distribute it, through the agency of the railroads centering here. We do not claim that our shipping facilities are either up to date, or adequate, but we deprecate the idea of entering upon a campaign to take away from other points the trade which may be said to naturally belong to them, because we think it would be a waste of time and money, and an obstruction to that progress which is manifestly ours, if we take the trouble to secure it. No amount of money we can spend would bring the ships here that now go to Savannah, Charleston or New Orleans, because there they can obtain particular classes of carrying business, and unless we are very derelict nothing will divert the rich import trade that favors this port away to to other ports, because of the reasons we have already given. We favor the making of generous appropriations for dock improvements, but to be expended within lines already sketched out.

SEVERAL plans are afoot for securing amendments to the Building Laws from the coming Legislature. One of these is to obtain the repeal of the act passed last spring, requiring all buildings over seventy feet in height to be built fireproof, and to revert back to the old limit of eighty-five feet. Mr. Austin, who introduced the bill last year, is reported to be now in favor of its repeal. A suggestion has been made in this connection which deserves consideration, and that is, that as what is wanted is really a six-story non-fireproof building, the limit of height to the top of the sixth floor should be made seventy-five feet with license for the addition of any ornamental features the owners may choose to put above that height. The matter of making a general limitation of the heights of all buildings in this city is also one the Legislature will be asked to consider. The bill introduced last year provided that no building should be higher than fifteen times the square root of the width of the street, except when located on corners, or on open spaces, and with no restrictions as to aesthetic addition above that height. This bill was feebly supported, though strongly opposed, and died a natural death. Its evident insufficiency will probably cause it to be thoroughly remodeled before being sent to Albany again. Some of our contemporaries seem to think that as the high building has, as a rule, not proved to be a financial success, there will be little opposition to a bill of this character if introduced now. This gives property-owners credit for very short sight as well as overlooks the fact that sufficient time has not been allowed to prove whether the high building is to be a success or not. We are opposed to high buildings, and have been since their inception on artistic, sanitary and commercial grounds, but that does not permit us to overlook the facts which surround them, or what we know to be the feeling of property-owners in regard to any right of which it is sought to deprive them. Consequently we are sure that any bill to limit the heights of buildings must be very carefully drawn, and have due regard to the abilities which the high building movement has already created to avoid opposition on the part of owners of sites suitable for such buildings, and such sympathetic assistance as they can command from builders and others. The high-building movement has, unfortunately, now gone too far to be stopped by a peremptory enactment without doing gross justice to very many people. The Tenement House Law is also to receive consideration, in the hope that some of the most obnoxious of the requirements of the act of 1895 can be removed. Finally, we are looking anxiously for the report of the committee empowered to prepare and recommend to the Greater New York Commission a building law for the enlarged city.

Real Estate Exchange Directors.

The annual meeting and election by the stockholders of the Real Estate Exchange and Auction Room (Limited), held on Monday, was without unusual incident until the counting of the ballots disclosed at the end of the day that two of the regular nominees for directors had been defeated. Douglas Robinson, the president of the retiring board, called the meeting to order and in a brief address dilated on the progressive attitude assumed by the Exchange for the past twelve months. His statement was mainly a repetition more emphatically expressed of the facts contained in the annual report recently published.

The adjournment of the meeting was followed by the usual uninteresting voting on the cumulative plan. The new directors chosen with the number of votes polled for each were the following: Richard V. Harnett, 4,715; Richard Deeves, 4,160; John C. R. Eckerson, 3,900; John F. Doyle, 3,815; Solomon De Walltearss, 3,770; Moses Ottinger, 3,675; Charles F. Hoffman, Jr., 3,550; Samuel McMillan, 3,415; J. Edgar Leaycraft, 3,260; Alfred E. Marling, 3,130; Alfred L. White, 3,040; Augustus H. Carpenter, 2,600, and Charles A. Peabody, Jr., 1,680.

William M. Cruikshank, Edgar Tucker and Francis B. Robert were elected to fill the positions of inspectors of the next annual election.

The two directors who ran independently and successfully were Messrs. Deeves and Eckerson. The regular nominees who failed to receive the support necessary for election were Frederick Southack, 770 votes, and Thomas S. Walker, 790 votes. The latter was a member of the old board, and several of its committees, but owing to ill-health has been unable to give the business of the institution the benefit of his experience and advice for many months. His defeat, while unexpected, caused no particular surprise, as he had frequently expressed indifference regarding the result of the election, and disbelief in the event of being chosen of his ability to give Exchange matters any serious attention for a long time to come. Mr. Southack's fate was the most astonishing thing that has happened in the Liberty street building for many a day. He had been induced to accept the candidacy on a promise that apparently assured his election. One reason for his defeat is probably discoverable in the position he holds in connection with the auction salesroom located at No. 111 Broadway. He is the agent of the building and naturally supposed to be interested in the continuation of the tenancy of the Auctioneers' Association, the principal lessee of the basement floor.

The new Board of Directors met on Thursday afternoon and organized by selecting the following officers for the ensuing year: Alfred E. Marling, president; John F. Doyle, first vice-president; Samuel McMillan, second vice-president; Charles F. Hoffman, Jr., secretary, and J. Edgar Leaycraft, treasurer.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE.

Sir: Referring to a note in your recent issue, Dec. 12, it is hardly correct to say that "Samuel F. Jayne, first vice-president of the Real Estate Exchange, has reconsidered his recent acceptance of a renomination as director." My first knowledge of the ticket proposed by the committee on nomination came to me upon receipt of the printed report Dec. 1. On the 4th inst. I sent my declination to the President of the Exchange, a copy of which you will find herewith. I am gratified that my substitute was elected by a generous vote. Yours truly,

SAMUEL F. JAYNE.

Douglas Robinson, President Real Estate Exchange and Auction Room, Ltd.

Dear Sir: I am in receipt of the ticket for the proposed Board of Directors of the Real Estate Exchange, as per nomination of the committee, and have the honor to find my name thereon.

After very careful consideration, I feel compelled to decline to serve as director for the coming year. I have been, for a number of weeks, in poor health, and, finding it almost impossible to recover from an attack of "grippe," my physician advises me to suspend work and go to a different climate, and, at least, positively forbids my continuing to work "full time."

I regret very much to sever my connection with the board, especially in view of the very pleasant relations with the members during the past two years. I earnestly hope that you will substitute another name for mine, and be assured that I shall do all in my power to effect his election, and, as a layman, to promote the interests of the Exchange. Yours very truly.

(Signed) SAM'L F. JAYNE.

Brooklyn Real Estate Exchange.

President Jere Johnson, Jr., presided at the annual meeting of the Real Estate Exchange of Brooklyn on Monday, and in submitting the report for the year stated that the improvements in the building had cost $3,400, the rents received were $44,246.66, and the dividends $12,350, against $9,880 last year. The auction room fees amounted to $2,200, an increase of $500. The following directors were re-elected: Jere Johnson, Jr., John F. James, Elihu J. Granger, Felix Campbell, David Barnett, George W. Chauncey, Cornelius E. Venollon, George B. Bretz, Leonard Moody, Darwin R. James, Jacob G. Dettmer, Edward L. Linton and William Ziegler.

An Important Legal Decision.

The Steel-Clad Bath Company, of New York, of which W. C. Trageser is president, had, on Dec. 7, in the United States Circuit Court of this city, a decision rendered in its favor, against Mayor, Jane & Co., Samuel Davison and Peck Bros. & Co., for infringement on their letters patent No. 458,995 for their steel-clad bath. The tubs sold by the defendants above-named, and which the court decides were infringements on their patent, were made by the Day, Ward Company, of Warren, O. The Steel-Clad Bath Company assert that they will prosecute any one either buying, selling or using any bath tub not of their manufacture, which is composed of a thin inner metallic lining, supported by an outer sheet steel casing.

The Real Estate Board of Brokers.

The Nominating Committee of the Real Estate Board of Brokers has nominated for re-election as governors, to serve during next year, Messrs. J. Clarence Davies, Wm. H. Folsom, Frank R. Houghton, Douglas Robinson, and P. S. Treacy. They also nominated Messrs. John H. Dye, Walter Stabler, Benjamin Richards and Irving Ruland to serve in the places of Messrs. Alfred E. Marling, J. Edgar Leaycraft, S. F. Jayne and C. F. Hoffman, Jr.

The committee adopted the following resolution: "It is the sense of the Nominating Committee that the best interests of the Real Estate Board of Brokers would be subserved by the election of governors who are not in the directory of the Real Estate Exchange, and for that reason it has dropped the names of those of the old Board of Governors who are to serve the coming year as directors in the Exchange."

The annual meeting, at which the foregoing ticket will be proposed for election, will be held on the 6th prox.

To Real Estate Owners and Builders.

A meeting of the Real Estate Owners and Builders Association will be held at 8 p. m., on Tuesday next in the Hotel Tecumseh, Boulevard and 67th street, for the transaction of important business. All members are urged to attend and owners and builders who are not members to qualify as such in order that they may also be there. Recent events have shown the necessity for unity of action on the part of property owners, builders and others, and the meeting on Tuesday next will further demonstrate this. Inquiries regarding the before-mentioned association can be directed to George Vassar, Jr., secretary at the place of meeting.

Correspondence.

CHAS. BUEK AND THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Sir: Please permit me the use of your columns to thank you for your kind reference to my case in last week's issue, and also to thank those friends and fellow sufferers who have tendered me their sympathy and assistance in my controversy with the Department of Public Works over area gratings. I appreciate such evidence of fellow-feeling very highly, and while the cost of the suit now in progress must necessarily be borne by myself, I should be very glad to have the assistance of any others who may be interested, in case any further litigation may become necessary.

We rest our case principally on the law of 1895, which in terms requires the construction of areas from the level of the cellar to the sidewalk in front of all tenement or apartment houses, and permits them to be covered with suitable vault lights or gratings, where stores are located on the first floor. It will be seen therefore that if my contention is upheld, charges for all such areas are illegal, whether covered or not, and every payment made since the passage of the act, may be reclaimed from the city. I would like to hear from any builders or property owners who have been arbitrarily, and as I contend, illegally, stopped in their work or otherwise interfered with by the Department, or made to pay unjust charges for the sake of peace, with a view to making up a case that will cover all the various properties in question.

And I would also most particularly join my voice to yours in urging organization and combination among builders generally, as the only remedy for this and many other evils under which we now suffer. The builders of this city if united could, through their contractors, sub-contractors, material men and employees, easily influence or control from 25,000 to 30,000 votes, and it is high time that we made our influence felt. We have been asleep too long. Let all combine for mutual protection, join existing organizations or form new ones, sink party politics, and act in future as a united body, quick to resent an injury to one as the concern of all, and these humiliations, annoyances and exactions under which we now suffer, will come to an end at once. No legitimate demand will be refused either at the City Hall or at Albany, that is backed by 30,000 votes. Very respectfully,

CHAS. BUEK.

What is Mr. Buek's case to-day may be that of any one else to-morrow. So far the City Departments have had a great advantage in dealing with builders one at a time; if the latter had a protective organization, this advantage would be lost to the former. While no possible harm can come from it—much good may—if a generous response to the request for counsel and sympathy is made. Mr. Buek's suit has been successful so far that Judge Truax on Wednesday continued the injunction, granted last Friday, restraining the Department of Public Works from interfering with the area protections at Amsterdam avenue and 81st street, and the hearing of the case by the same judge sitting in Part I. of the Supreme Court has been set for next Monday.

Real Estate Market.

The sales reported represent a total investment of about $1,750,000, one-third of which is due to purchases of lots and other property for probable improvement before or by next spring. Dwellings have sold freely, considering the season of the year. Flats and tenements have also been in excellent demand. Business property is practically at a standstill.

The sales at the Broadway Salesroom on Monday embraced the customary limited number of parcels that are an uninteresting feature on the first day of almost every week. There was one withdrawal, that of Nos. 122 and 124 Manhattan avenue, from foreclosure sale by William Kennelly.

The list of properties scheduled for sale on Tuesday was an attractive one, comprising many of minor value advertised by order of executors. It met with small public appreciation, however, and the result was that those in control of the various offerings found it absolutely necessary to withdraw many of them in order to avoid making sacrifices. William Kennelly's sale of five parcels for the estate of the late Jane M. Miller, was the only notable exception.

Adrian H. Muller & Son withdrew No. 39 West 20th street, on a final bid of $37,700; Bryan L. Kennelly, after a bid of $17,300, had been received, performed a similar service for No. 48 Manhattan street, in the 12th Ward; William M. Ryan withdrew three leasehold properties, No. 302 Madison street, No. 304, adjoining, on which a bid of $1,425 was made, and No. 165 Monroe street, and D. P. Ingraham & Co., the following, in none of which could bidders be induced to betray any interest: A plot, 50x200 running through from 187th to 188th street, 225 feet east of 11th avenue; a plot, 128.9x236.3x180.3x230, on the west corner of Ellwood street and Hillside avenue or street, and the abutting parcels, Nos. 163 Bowery and 133 Chrystie street. The foreclosure adjournments comprised the southeast corner of Amsterdam avenue and 204th street, and the northwest corner of West End avenue, and 101st street, both by D. P. Ingraham & Co., to the 29th inst.; Nos. 320 to 326 East 109th street, by A. L. Soulard to the same date, and No. 483 Manhattan avenue by William Kennelly until Jan. 14.

On the same day at the Real Estate Exchange, S. De Walltearss & Co., withdrew No. 320 East 61st street, on a bid of $23,700, and Richard V. Harnett & Co., No. 109 West 70th street, on a closing offer of $27,500. Messrs. Harnett & Co. also put up at executor's sale for the estate of the late John T. Wilson, Nos. 73 to 79 Fulton street, northeast corner of Gold street, but were compelled to withdraw it owing to the failure of those present to manifest any desire to bid on the property.

The same auctioneers had originally intended presenting on behalf of the same estate the four-story brownstone dwelling with lot, 20x80, No. 5 Park avenue, with the two-story stable, lot 20 x98.9, No. 105 East 34th street, adjoining same in the rear. In the meantime, however, the executors found a purchaser for the property in Charles P. Noyes, owner of the adjoining residence, No. 7 Park avenue, and having disposed of it to him for about $80,000, notified the auction firm to announce its withdrawal.

Wednesday's announcements at the same auction room included an offering of the Austin Corbin property on the northeast corner of 5th avenue and 38th street, by Geo. R. Read. The severe snow and wind storm doubtless affected the attendance, which was one of the smallest of the year. The sale was one ordered by the executors of the late Mr. Corbin's will, but, as the result showed, they overreached themselves by instructing a dummy bidder, unfamiliar with auction methods, to be present and protect the property for the estate, unless it brought a specified sum. He followed his instructions so minutely that he raised his own bids and insisted on Mr. Read accepting them. His object was therefore speedily made apparent to those present and with broad smiles on many of their faces the limited number of assembled brokers and capitalists decided as one man to give the overanxious bidder an undisputed field. The property was presented in one parcel and bought in by him at $447,000. Its submission to the consideration of the investors and speculators who follow all important public sales, has caused a revival of a story widely circulated in 1889 when it last changed hands. James Gordon Bennett, who was then the owner and seller, through an inexcusable oversight, was said to have presented Mr. Corbin with a deed of three parcels, Nos. 425 and 427 5th avenue and 1 East 38th street, when the expectation of the buyer was to acquire only two, the 5th avenue corner house and the adjoining stable and lot fronting on the street at the stipulated price of $300,000. Mr. Bennett did not discover the error until some time after the consummation of the transaction and has since been placed by real estate brokers in the same category with the late A. T. Stewart, as a monumental failure in all things relating to realty.

Richard V. Harnett & Co.'s offering for the account of heirs of No. 59 East 59th street, provoked lively competition until it was disposed of for $29,000. On the same day, when the serious business of the early part of the noon hour had been concluded, the loungers who make the auction room their daily meeting place, extracted a good deal of amusement out of a sort of burlesque offering of uptown property by John T. Boyd. He began without an audience and proceeded without one through an extensive list of property, some of which he had possibly hoped to sell. Blessed with a voice and lungs in unusually good condition, despite the stormy condition of the weather, he was not to be discouraged by the absence of a substantial gathering in front of his stand, and in lieu of one compelled the amused attention of all who were within earshot. Apparently there were no bidders for the half-dozen or more parcels put up except mythical ones only recognized by the auctioneer. When the "sale" ended, to the great relief of many of the regular habitues of the place, who showed signs of being bored, it was announced that none of the properties had been sold and that several others, shown on the auction poster, were withdrawn. The following comprise all that were knocked down with the final "bids" omitted: No. 232 East 84th street; two lots on Jackson avenue, between Cedar place and Denman street; a 30-foot lot on the southeast corner of 3d avenue and 182d street; two adjoining avenue lots; a lot on the east side of 3d avenue, 50 feet north of 173d street, and two lots, 25 feet south of 171st street. The property not submitted consisted of Nos. 228 and 230 E. 84th street; a lot on the east side of 3d avenue, 100 feet south of 171st street, and two lots on same avenue, 175 feet south of that street.

There were only three sales at the Broadway Salesroom on Wednesday, but one by Bryan L. Kennelly of Nos. 110 and 112 Nassau street and 43 Ann street for the estate of John Campbell, deceased, relieved the dullness of the day and week, by adding to the record one transaction of importance involving the payment of a large consideration. The buyer, who purchased the property for Governor Levi P. Morton, owner of the adjoining seven-story "Nassau Chambers" building, had several days previously made through Mr. Kennelly an offer of $170,000 for it. His proposal was not considered and at the auction sale he opened the bidding at the same amount, with the expectation that so large an initial offer would shut off competition. There were others present, however, who had an eye on the parcel, and, not abashed by the big starting bid, joined in the struggle for its possession. Not until his final offer of $181,000 was made did the governor's representative quiet all opposition and secure the coveted property. In the hands of its new owner it will unquestionably be of more value than it could possibly be if controlled by anybody else, as it will enable him, if he so desires, to duplicate his adjacent office structure. The buildings now on the site are so antiquated that they long ago became an eyesore detrimental to neighboring property. A singular thing in connection with this parcel is that an offer of $202,000 for it, made by the owner of Nos. 39 and 41 Ann street, was declined early in the year. The owners must regret having entertained an exaggerated and unwarranted belief in its value and also the necessity of having now to charge to profit and loss the additional consideration of $21,000, as well as a year's taxes and the other annual expenses that together have long exceeded the income derived from the property. Philip A. Smyth postponed on the same day a foreclosure sale of No. 140 West 78th street, until Jan. 6.

Richard V. Harnett & Co. withdrew on a bid of $7,500 No. 43 Cherry street, offered at the Real Estate Exchange on Thursday. Yesterday's transactions at No. 111 Broadway included the frequently postponed foreclosure sale of the Tabernacle Baptist Church property, by William Kennelly, on 2d avenue, between 10th and 11th street. It was bought by the plaintiff for $88,000. A sale which brought to Peter F. Meyer's stand a crowd of respectable proportions in which were many neighboring owners and residents, was that of the leasehold premises, No. 515 5th street, by order of executor. The bids ran from $7,000 to $9,400. The lot is held under an Astor lease that expires on May 1, 1899, when the agreement provides for the removal of the building by the lessee. The price obtained would be a big one in the event of its being necessary to strictly comply with the terms of the agreement. The buyer and other participants in the bidding were counting, no doubt, on securing a renewal of the lease, and their confidence in being able to do so was probably not misplaced.

Mr. Chas. Buek announces in our business pages that he has some very fine West Side property for sale. This includes apartment houses on Amsterdam avenue and West 81st street, and dwellings on West 72d street, particulars of which will be found in the announcement before mentioned. Mr. Buek is one of the best and most reliable builders of domestic buildings in this city, a reputation which he has made by many years conscientious work. It is unnecessary, therefore, to say that any one desiring good realty investments would do well to confer with this builder at No. 264 Columbus avenue, corner 72d street.

Messrs. Lowenfeld and Prager have sold No. 164 Stanton street, a four-story brick tenement adjoining the above, lot 25x75, to Samuel Greenfield, and purchased from the Edgar estate, the stable with lot, 20x100, No. 54 Columbia street.

Golding & Whitehouse have sold for Mrs. M. D. Van Winkle the two-story private stable, 18.9x100.5, No. 43 West 44th street, to Albert G. Hyde for about $30,000.

M. E. Hewitt & Co. have sold for Mrs. Rachel McAuley at about $36,000, the two four-story brick dwellings, with lots, 17.2x98.9 each, Nos. 240 and 244 West 39th street.

Ranold H. Macdonald has closed a trade between Fannie E. D. Storey and Thomas Kirkpatrick by the terms of which the former will sell the four-story dwelling with lot, 23.5x98.9, No. 51 West 33d street, at $75,000, and take in exchange at $25,000, a lot on the east side of the Boulevard, 25 feet south of 131st street and two lots on the south side of that street 100 feet east of the Boulevard.

Douglas Robinson & Co. have sold for the Jay estate, at about $50,000, the six-story store and loft building, with lot 25x75, No. 97 Spring street, between Broadway and Mercer street; also, for Archibald D. Russell, to James Speyer, the four-story brick dwelling, with lot, 27x115, No. 257 Madison avenue, between 38th and 39th streets.

Hoffman Bros. have sold for Mr. Buttenwieser the old five-story building, 26.2x54x25x53.11, No. 98 Liberty street, southeast corner of Trinity place, to Jefferson M. Levy. Mr. Levy formerly owned the property, and sold it to Warren E. Dennis, in May, 1894, for a consideration that was given as $125,000 in the deed. Mr. Dennis parted with it through a trade, in April last, Mr. Buttenwieser acquiring title to it on the 30th of that month, subject to a mortgage for $120,000. The daily papers, in reporting the latest sale, a day or two ago, credited Mr. Dennis with being the owner and seller. The records do not show, however, that he ever regained possession of the property. A sale of this same parcel to C. S. Harrell, reported previous to the election campaign, fell through on account of the financial stringency that followed. Clinton & Russell had meanwhile prepared plans for a new building that was projected by Mr. Harrell.

We were misled last week when stating that No. 24 Union square had been sold to the Institution for Savings of Merchants' Clerks. The bank was not interested in the transaction, but a well-known investor was and expected to secure the lacking signature of one of the owners of the parcel to the contract on Monday last. The appointment made for the purpose was not kept, however, and no sale was effected.

Concerning Real Estate Agents and Brokers.

Henry Marks, of No. 2216 8th avenue, near 120th street, is a late addition to the ranks of the realty brokers and agents. He is a man of responsibility and mercantile training, and is likely to get a good share of business, being intelligent, alert and energetic. Mr. Marks is well posted on the value of realty in the vicinity of his office, and has many desirable properties for sale. He will give personal attention to the management of estates and will be glad to hear from owners who want their property well managed.

Broker T. Alonzo Thorne, of No. 150 Broadway, announces that he has a large special fund to loan only on unimproved property. More than two-thirds the value of the plots will be advanced at low rates.

Mr. S. C. Hicks, who for the past year has been connected with Col. J. Hamilton Hunt's office, has opened an office on his own account at No. 127 Grand Boulevard, opposite 66th street "L" station. Mr. Hicks is well and favorably known, and has for sale at figures that show good returns, many desirable West Side investment properties. He also has some well located private dwellings at bottom prices.

Broker Jacob A. King has opened an uptown branch in the 12th Ward Savings Bank building, No. 231 West 125th street, which he will make his headquarters for buying, selling and managing all properties above 59th street.

Broker John P. Windolph, who represents the central west side of town in the Board of Aldermen, is an indefatigable worker and an expert on real estate values. He owns many desirable properties and is in touch with capitalists who are ready to buy at tempting figures. His office is conveniently located at No. 92 Liberty street. Telephone 27 Cortlandt.

Trade Notes.

PIANOS.

R. M. Walters, piano manufacturer, has removed to Nos. 105 and 107 West 33d street, at 6th avenue "L" station, where he has one of the largest piano establishments in New York, for the sale or rent of pianos on easy terms. He has added a new feature in the "Piano Exchange" where new and second-hand pianos of all makes can be bought, sold, exchanged or rented, tuned, repaired, boxed and shipped to all parts of the world. The house is an old established one and numbers among its patrons many men well-known in busin ess, social and professional circles. This is a most opportune time to select a piano for a Christmas present, a nobler gift could not be offered.

IMPROVED CLOTHES-DRYING FRAMES FOR ROOFS.

Leo Oppenheimer, of No. 521 East 11th street, merits the appreciation which architects, builders and owners have shown by so general an adoption of his patent screwless suspension wash frames. Their superior qualities are too well known to need mention here, suffice it to say that such structures as the Biltmore and Blenheim, Nos. 56 to 62 West 58th street; the Hampton, 117th street, St. Nicholas and 7th avenues, H. F. Cook, architect and builder; Chas. Buek's flats, southwest corner of Amsterdam avenue and 81st street; the Wellesley, West End avenue and 81st street, and Jung & Mohr's block on Manhattan avenue, 101st and 102d streets, are a few of the up-to-date structures supplied with Mr. Oppenheimer's improved drying frames. Illustrated circular and prices will be sent on application to Mr. Oppenheimer at No. 521 East 11th street.

REINHARDT BROS.

The old established firm of Reinhardt Bros., of No. 642 6th street, masons and builders, have recently completed three new flats at No. 192-4-6 East 3d street, for Mr. Stuyvesant Fish, and another on the corner of Stanton and Ludlow streets for the Winthrop estate, all four houses being planned by Architects Julius Boekell & Sons, of No. 54 Bond street. Messrs. Reinhardt make a specialty of general repairs to buildings, and number among their customers many of New York's oldest and most honored families. Among other alterations of recent date may be mentioned a storehouse on West 22d street, belonging to C. Hofferberth. This was done for the Building Department and required careful and ingenious work. Another alteration was made by this firm on West 32d street, from plans by Constable Bros. The firm's facilities are of the best and all orders receive prompt and personal attention. Their telephone call is 1473 Spring.

HAVE YOUR STEAM AND HEATER PIPES COVERED.

T. J. Wallace, of No. 101 West 80th street, manufacturer of awnings, window shades, etc., makes a specialty at this season of the year covering steam and heater pipes, as well as gas and water pipes with asbestos and hair-felt coverings. The use of these fireproof coverings on heater and furnace pipes saves fuel and distributes the heat where needed. Mr. Wallace is a conscientious worker and numbers among his customers many of the best known realty owners and builders on the West Side. He will gladly furnish estimates to interested persons.

COALITION IN THE BRICK TRADE.

The Powhatan Clay Manufacturing Company have assumed the exclusive selling agency for the product of the Jarden Brick Company, of Philadelphia, for New York and Brooklyn. The goods manufactured by the Jarden Brick Company have for many years ranked amongst the foremost of high grade front brick made in this country, a fact that is acknowledged by architects and contractors generally. This company make a specialty of iron spots, grays and mottles. The Powhatan Clay Manufacturing Company, will, as heretofore, continue to make exclusively, their famous cream white brick, which brick they lay claim to being the best and most durable cream white brick known to the trade. Mr. F. H. S. Morrison, the resident general sales manager, begs leave to notify architects, builders and owners contemplating the use of the goods made by these two companies, that applications for quotations and sample must be made to him at the New York office direct, as they recognize no sub-agents for the sale of these goods. Persons desiring to acquaint themselves with the durable and decorative qualities of their cream white brick, can best do so by a glance at the immense establishment of the Siegel-Cooper building on 6th avenue, this city, in which in the neighborhood of 600,000 of their brick were used. Mr. Morrison can be seen at all times at the New York office, No. 160 5th avenue. The telephone number is 1717 18th street.

CONVEYANCES.

Wherever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it.

The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the Deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

Mortgages against 23d and 24th Ward properties will be found all together at the foot of this list.

LIABILITY FOR TAXES.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

After the Assessor's books of the Town of Hempstead were closed and handed to the Supervisor of the town (on October 24), a sale of property was made. If the purchaser is liable for any tax which has not been levied, what course of procedure should the seller follow to prevent the bill from coming to him? I understand that the books cannot be altered after reaching the Supervisor. Is not the purchaser liable for any tax not levied at the time of sale, unless by special arrangement?.

Answer.—The seller need follow no course of procedure; he need only tell the collector when he calls that he is no longer the owner of the property. The purchaser is liable for any tax not levied at the time of sale.—Law Editor.

COMMISSION FOR RENTING.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

If an agreement is made with a party by a broker whereby he is to receive 5 per cent. commission for renting his property, nothing being said about the term being one or more years, what is usual and customary or legal for the broker to demand if the property is leased for three years?

Answer.—The "custom of the trade" in Brooklyn, is to charge as commission for renting, 2½ per cent. for the first year and 1 per cent. for each succeeding year of the lease; country property, 5 per cent. for the first year, and 2 per cent. for each succeeding year. If no agreement is made these rates govern. If an agreement is supposed to be made and "the minds of the parties do not meet," there is no agreement. In the case presented there seems to have been no agreement, essential portions of the contract having been omitted. If, however, the lease was for one year only the owner would be obliged to pay 5 per cent. on the year's rental.—Law Editor.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Wherever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for further particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

NEW YORK.

BRICKS. No changes have occurred in the prices for Hudson River brick. Few tows have been received, and the severe weather experienced during the past week has made it probable that shipments from the upper part of the river will cease with this, after this week. About thirty barges are expected to arrive at about the close of the week, to be put under cover. The call for supplies has been quiet, as the weather conditions have been unfavorable for an extensive demand, and furthermore dealers have appeared to be carrying fairly large supplies, and have shown no disposition to make further additions to their holdings. Prices for ordinary grades have ranged from $3.87½ to $4.25, and the better grades have been at $4.37½@4.75. Specials have been quoted unchanged at $5.00. The supply of pale brick has been only moderate, but demand has been quiet, and no changes have been made in quoted prices, which have ranged from $1.50 to $2.00, according to quality. The offerings of Jersey brick have been small, and prices have been quoted steady at 4.00@4.25. Demand, however, has been quiet.

GLASS.—No changes of a radical nature have occurred in the market for window glass. There has been a general revival of blowing by manufacturers during the past week, although there have been reports that some Eastern manufacturers have failed to agree on wages, but that a satisfactory settlement will soon be made. At a meeting of the Western and Pittsburgh agencies a reorganization was effected, and it is reported that manufacturers will make a new range of prices, which will show a material advance and that they will probably be indorsed by friendly independent manufacturers. Plate glass has been in increasing demand at firm prices.

HARDWARE.—A generally hopeful feeling has dominated the market. Considering the season of the year, the volume of business transacted has been satisfactory, although it has been principally in the way of restoring depleted stocks. However, where prices have been considered low there has been some disposition shown by the large trade to supply itself agains future wants, and prices generally have shown a fair degree of tone. Little complaint is heard over collections, as they have shown a marked improvement latterly. A local trade journal says of the situation: "The course of the iron market will be watched with close interest, as on it depends in good measure the firmness of prices of many lines of heavy hardware. Notwithstanding the fact that the market has not assumed a buoyant and advancing tone as rapidly as some desired, the year draws to a close with a hopeful feeling and anticipations of excellent business conditions in 1897."

LATH.—The market has been without new or interesting features. The arrivals have been small, but as demand has continued slow, supplies at hand have been sufficient to fill all requirements, and prices have held steady; $1.50 has been the general trading price, although in a small way sales have been made at $1.55 and $1.60.

LIME.—There have been no changes to note in the general situation of the market for Eastern lime. The call for supplies has been slow, but as the stock is limited and held by a few hands there has been no pressure to sell, and prices have held steady at 60c. for common Rockland, and 70c. for finishing do. There have been no further offerings of St. John lime, and prices have been quoted unchanged at 50c.@55c. Common State lime has been nominal, and Jointa has been quoted unchanged and steady at $1.00.

LUMBER.—There have been no new developments of an interesting nature in the general situation of the market. Naturally at the close of the year the volume of business transacted is small, and this season has proved no exception to the rule. However, there is a generally firm tone to the situation, as holders of supplies are anticipating the future with a marked show of confidence, as they generally believe that with the opening of the spring trade there will be a steady revival of business activity and that higher prices will be realized, consequently there is very little lumber seeking an outlet at present.

The position of the market for Eastern spruce has not changed in any important particulars. The amount of business transacted has been small, as offerings have been light, the few random cargoes coming this way being held, as a rule, up to the time of their arrival, and they have then found a quick sale at full market values. Reports from the provinces stated that the few mills operating there have all the orders on hand that they care to take, and that to place further orders for quick delivery it would be necessary to pay an advance. West Virginia spruce has had a fair call in carload lots, at steady prices. State spruce has been in moderate request, and unchanged values. Existing conditions have not changed in any important particulars in the market for white pine. Wholesalers, naturally at this season of the year, are not having much of a call for supplies, but they are confidently awaiting for the opening of the spring trade, and in the meantime are naming what are considered rather extreme prices for the more desirable stock. The coarse grades have also been well maintained in value.

A good healthy tone has continued to dominate the market for yellow and North Carolina pine. No further transactions of importance have been made public, but negotiations have been under way on a fairly large line for future delivery. The ideas of buyers and sellers, however, have been slightly apart, and nothing of a positive nature has as yet been accomplished.

There has been a firm market for hemlock, and advices from the Pennsylvania mills state that negotiations are under way with local dealers for some fairly large lines of supplies at full market values. Nothing of especial interest has transpired in the market for cypress. The business transacted has been very moderate, but indications have been favorable for a better market later in the season, and sellers consequently have shown no disposition to hurry business.

The market for hardwoods has continued in a fairly firm position. The volume of business transacted has been only moderate, but it is expected that with the opening of the spring trade business will rapidly improve, as a decided increase in demand is anticipated for interior finish, as indications are that the building trade will broaden out considerably, and an increased call for supplies is also anticipated from other trades.

The "Northwestern Lumberman" says of the prospects for oak: "It is increasingly becoming evident that oak is to domineer in the market for a year to come. Depression in building and manufacture has had the effect to reduce the supply. Mill operators could not readily market their product, and therefore could not get the money means for getting out logs or sawing them into lumber. Advances from dealers have been mostly out of the question for a year or more. Unless many mill concerns can procure such advances or guarantees they cannot continue operations. The result has been that a majority of the mills, especially in the South, where the bulk of oak lumber is produced, have remained idle during a large portion of the past year. Since election dealers have been looking around for stocks, and have found that the supply is unwontedly small. Buyers are now plentiful, but the amount of their purchases has been comparatively small, for the reason that there is little lumber in sight. Under the influence of the new demand many mills will be started, but the revival has not progressed far enough to determine a large amount of money into contracts which reach into the future. The wholesale dealers would like to buy lumber that is already on stick, and are picking up all they can find. But they have not yet reached the stage that justifies them in advancing money for next year's sawing, and the mills will not start until such funds are forthcoming. After the new year shall come in contracts in larger number will be placed, and gradually the mills will get started. But the process will consume time, and meanwhile available stocks will be absorbed and pass into consumption. Lumber being now turned out will have to remain on stick from four to six months before it will be dry enough to ship, and the winter season is not a favorable time for drying lumber. Moreover, much of the oak cut in the South is derived from bottom lands, on which there can be no hauling of logs in the winter. Dealers who have lately been in the lower Mississippi region looking for chances to place contracts for lumber to be sawed, have found the mill operators unwilling to undertake operations now because they cannot determine when they will be able to put in the necessary logs. In all probability the bottom lands will be in such a condition until late next spring that no logs can be hauled to the mills. It can be seen that an interesting situation is thus presented. It looks as if there could be no appreciable increase of the oak suppy for at least six months, and then the demand is likely to have absorbed available stocks to such a degree that the new supply will melt away about as fast as it shall be ready for shipment.

"Already the market has acquired much strength. Dealers who have been brushing about since election, buying all the oak they could find, are holding it for advances of price to the extent of $1 to $2 a thousand. One dealer in this city, lately returned from the South, declares that he will sell no oak at less than $2 advance on prices prevailing before election. Evidently all holders of oak have resolved to sit down on it until early in the new year, being fully persuaded that they can make more money in that way than by selling at prices which can be obtained at the present time. Of course, though consumption has increased since election, the industries have not yet got into full swing, and the demand in the consuming centers is still a little quiet. But all are looking for a revival early in the new year, and knowing that stocks of oak are short, and are likely to be short until next summer, there is no disposition to force sales by offering concessions in prices. More money can be made by hanging on until after the holidays. A factor in the new demand will be the call for interior finish which will arise when next year's building season shall fairly open.

"Conditions present a favorable outlook for the manufacturers north of the Ohio River, particularly in Wisconsin, Michigan and Indiana. In these States logging and manufacture can be carried on all winter, and the scarcity in the general supply will give the mill operators a chance to make good disposition of their product early in the spring at higher prices than they have realized for some time.

"The Michigan Maple Company, which is an organization comprising the mills cutting maple in the Grand Traverse region of Michigan, held a meeting at Traverse City, Dec. 8, and adopted minimum prices as follows: Cull, $4; common, $9; first and second, $14; log run, $10. Last year's prices were: Cull, $5; common, $10.50; first and second, $15.50. The mills in the organization now have on hand 14,778,000 feet.

"The log crop for the eastern Michigan mills will be a short one, and some of them will be idle. The Canadian input of logs will be far short of that of last winter. It is estimated that not to exceed 175,000,000 feet of logs will be put into Canadian waters to be rafted to Tawas, Alpena, Cheboygan, Saginaw River and Detroit.

"Menominee, Mich.—The Northern Supply Company has closed a contract with Isaac Stephenson, of Marinette, to put in 20,000,000 feet of logs along Cedar River, and Pembine Creek, during the winter. This contract is the largest logging contract made this winter.

"The DeWitt Brown Cedar Company is covering a wide field of operations this winter, and is overrun with orders for cedar. A representative of the company states that the shipments of cedar posts, poles, and ties to outside markets this winter will exceed those of any two years previous. There is also a great demand for cedar piling.

"The season thus far has been very favorable for logging, notwithstanding considerable snow fell in the dry and unfrozen swamps. The snow was followed by heavy rains, and then came the most solid freeze-up known in this section for many years. This made excellent hauling at once, and since then the weather has been moderate and very cold in turn, with just enough snow to "grease" the roads, thus making ideal sledding. All things considered, it is safe to predict that the estimated cut of 300,000,000 feet for the winter will be considerably increased."

PAINTS, OILS, ETC.—A fairly firm tone has dominated the market for paints. The volume of business transacted has been fair, particularly in foreign leads, which, according to advices received from abroad, have advanced; but in the local market no changes have occurred in values. White lead, both dry and in oil, has had a moderate call, with some business transacted for next year's delivery. There have been further reports of slight shading of quotations by independent corroders, but the principal corroders have held prices firm. A firm market has been reported for red lead. A fairly brisk demand has been experienced, and business transacted has been at full values. Litharge has sold fairly well, as both rubber and glass manufacturers have been buyers at firm prices. Zincs have had a moderate call at unchanged rates. There have been free offerings of Paris green at reduced prices. The Association figures on lead last announced are as follows, subject to change without notice: Pure white lead, dry or in oil, red lead and litharge in kegs, in lots of 500 lbs. and over, 5¼c.; red lead and litharge in barrels and half barrers, ¼c. per lb. less than the price in kegs; white lead (cases), 1c. per lb. over price in kegs; white lead in 25-lb. tin pails (packed in 100-lb. or 200-lb. cases), 1½c. per lb. over price in kegs; white lead, assorted in 1-lb., 2-lb., 3-lb., and 5-lb. cans (packed in 100 or 200-lb. cases), 1½c. per lb. over price in kegs. Terms: On lots of 500 lbs. and over, 60 days, or 2 per cent discount for cash, if paid within 15 days from date of invoice f. o. b. at New York. Special prices for dry white lead in barrels. Quantities: To make either of above assorted quantities and assortments of packages either or all of the articles may be counted. The above prices and terms supersede all previous prices and terms by this company. The market for linseed oil has not changed in the slightest particular. The volume of business transacted has been very moderate, as the consuming trade, as is natural at the close of the year, has been limiting its purchases to absolute wants, showing no disposition to enter into new contracts until after the turn of the year. In the way of deliveries on old contracts a moderate amount of oil, for this season of the year, has been moved. Crushers generally have expressed confidence in the situation of the market, as recent advices from Argentine reporting damage to the flaxseed crop, together with a continued small movement of the American crop at the West, has held values steady, and the values of oil have been maintained in sympathy. At this writing American city crushed was quoted at 33c. in five-bbl. lots, or over, and 34c. for less than five barrels; boiled was 2c. per bbl. higher; Calcutta was quiet and unchanged at 50c. Western crushed oil has been without changes or new features of importance. Demand has been limited to small jobbing orders, but offerings have been light, and at this writing the market was quoted steady at 31c.@32c. The market for spirits of turpentine has again turned easier, and at this writing 26¾@27c. was quoted for Southern and 27½c. for machines. At these prices, however, the market has shown a fairly steady tone. The volume of business transacted, while not large, has been of moderate proportions, as there has been some buying, both by canners and varnish makers, and the local consuming trade has made a limited number of purchases. Southern advices were weaker early in the week, but subsequently turned steadier. We quote at 26¾@29c. per gallon, according to time and place of delivery, quantity, style of package, etc.

TAR AND PITCH.—There have been no developments of an interesting nature in the market for tar. The amount of business transacted has been very moderate, and there has been a slight further increase in the stocks held by first hands. There has been, however, no pressure to sell, and values have held steady. Only a few jobbing orders have been received, for pitch, but prices have been maintained. We quote tar at $1.75@1.80 in pine or Wilmington barrels, $2.50 in pork barrels, and $3.50 in oil barrels. Pitch, $1.80@1.90.

WILSON & BAILLE MANUFACTURING CO.,

Gentlemen:

Your letter of May 13 received. In reply I would say that your firm have done a large amount of work under my direction and the Kosmocrete walks, which you have laid around the 23d Regiment Armory Building in Brooklyn and at Hornellsville, Utica, Cohoes and State Armories, is entirely satisfactory, and I shall specify your Kosmocrete in any work in this line, which I may have to do in the future, from the fact that I believe that when the ground is well drained and the walks put down according to your methods, and as you have done in the past for me, it makes a very durable and beautiful walk.

Respectfully,

C. G. PERRY.

VOL. LVIII. DECEMBER 26, 1896. No. 1,502

TRADE and finance have the characteristics peculiar to them at this season of the year, the chief of which is dullness. Movements in either will now await the counting up of the results of the holiday business and the scrutiny and overhauling to which every house subjects itself at the close of the year. There is no reason to regard this process with fear, because, although it is sure to produce some liquidation, the restrictions put upon business for so long a time past should prevent this being of great extent. The move in the Senate in regard to Cuba was fortunate, inasmuch as it brought out the fact of the ability as well as the wish of the Executive to maintain a policy of strict neutrality. Mr. Olney's prompt and judicious statements of the right of the President in the premises so effectually punctured the Senate's air balloon—and with the expressed approval of the sense and decency of the country—that another is not likely to be sent up from the same quarters. Of course there will be questions on Cuba and discussions upon Cuba, but the national position in regard to the troubles there is definitely fixed for the term of the present administration at least. The Western bank failures might produce more trouble than they do if it were not so apparent that they are the result of conditions long past. Evidently these institutions have been struggling with unwieldy loads for a good while, and that they have now to give up the fight is no reflection upon standing institutions which owe their stability to better methods and more conservative management. Ever since the World's Fair, Chicago has been a doubtful spot on the financial map, and it would not be surprising if it had not yet paid the whole of the price for the honor of being the scene of that national celebration.

THERE is a very reasonable explanation of the advance in money rates in Europe, which carries with it also almost a certainty that these rates will go higher rather than lower. Seven years have passed since the extension of the world's business was brought to the point of disruption, precipitating the Baring failure and the series of panics in various parts of the world, ending with that in the United States in 1893. These disasters forced all the available stores of capital into the great centres and produced a market in which money was almost worthless as an income producer. Since 1893 a process of commercial regeneration has been at work everywhere—except in the United States, which was an outcast from this wholesome process because of its currency and other economic sins, a position which it unfortunately still holds—and as a consequence the demand for money has been all the time growing until the rate has varied from 9 per cent. in Calcutta to 3 per cent. in London. At the latter point rates were kept down by the gratifying results of the South African gold mining operations, but now the demand has become so great that even this fails to have effect and London has become a borrower wherever capital is idle, which for the reason previously given is conspicuously the case in New York. Hopes for easier money in Europe are based upon the expectation that gold will flow from America early in the year, but these hopes have no very substantial foundation in our opinion; because, although it is highly probable that American merchants have, or soon will enlarge their purchases abroad, there is sure to be a revival of business on this side of the Atlantic with the coming of Spring, and this will call not only for the capital New York is loaning abroad, but also for such foreign capital as can be induced to take part in this revivifying movement. These two influences are likely to more than offset any indebtedness that the United States may incur abroad meantime, and if a sea-going gold movement is inaugurated it is more likely to flow westward than eastward. It is unnecessary to say that future movements of money are very hard to foresee, but the case and its natural probabilities are what we have stated them to be, and these point to the maintenance abroad of the demand and of the present high rates with possibly higher ones when the Spring activity begins.

AT last the public is to have some authentic information of the work done in the Greater New York Commission since the close of the summer vacation. The first seven chapters of the proposed charter will be published this week, and with the opening of the New Year the Commission will begin a series of public hearings covering the whole ground, which will occupy each day for two weeks. Another fortnight will be devoted to final considerations, and on February 1 a completed charter will be served up hot and smoking to the Legislature, and all previous records in charter making will have been completely beaten. The result will probably be a worse charter than was ever made before, but that will not matter, the smashing of the record is the important thing. It is proposed that the Department of Buildings shall cease to be numbered among the departments controlled by a single head and will instead be managed by a Commission of three members, who will also take the place of the Board of Examiners. Branch offices are to be established with suitable heads, so that the business of a particular district need not have to come to the chief office on Manhattan Island unless it is to be done within the district of which that office is to be the centre. So far as the building law itself is concerned, that is the law which will regulate actual construction, that has not been finally determined. The Committee on Draft have received a good many suggestions for the amendment of the existing building laws, but have not determined what it should adopt. It is probable that a draft law will be issued for public discussion and the actual law framed according to the turn that discussion takes. The Commission is, in regard to buildings, in the position of having to go outside for all its ideas, because there is not upon it one man capable of preparing a set of building regulations suited to meet the varied requirements of the extraordinary city which is now being molded with such delightful assurance. While thinking of the expansion that the Department of Buildings must undergo under this system of municipal distention, we cannot help also seeing that it means expansion in every other department and consequent increase in the burdens on real estate, particularly on New York city realty. According to a recent statement the number of employees of the Department of Buildings has been more than doubled in two years. With consolidation the territory requiring inspection by the Department will be more than doubled in area.. What the additional expense will be it is impossible to say, but it is certain that the united appropriations of the Building Departments of New York city and of Brooklyn to-day will seem moderate besides the estimates that will be presented by the Commissioners of Buildings of Greater New York.

IF the charter as submitted for public discussion does not do so, our citizens should take care that before going to the Legislature it contains ample protection to the public in the matter of franchises. There is now everywhere a better understanding of the immense value of privileges for supplying the city with light and transportation, for instance, and any provision that would leave the way open for jobs similar to that of the fuel gas job which was so recently and so promptly squelched, would be entirely unsatisfactory. To cover this ground thoroughly, the charter ought to provide that all such privileges should be kept well in hand by the city; that the new municipal government may take the initiative in laying out plans for public wants, and when such plans are laid out, whether by the city or by private individuals, they should be kept open to competition. The reported intention of the Committee on Draft on this point is that grants of franchises should be for a limited time, after which the privilege is to revert back to the city or may be continued to the original grantees upon an equitable readjustment of the original terms. This is very good as far as it goes, but it does not go far enough. The danger of fraud being practised upon the public by the corrupt manipulation of public privileges, is worst when the first grant is made, and it is there where the fullest protection is needed. There is no doubt that the commission is fully alive to the importance of this question and to the value of rights for supplying light, heating and water to the residents of the city; of the railroad franchises and of ferry and dock privileges, but it will not do to take this for granted, and the terms of the charter relating to them should be especially scrutinized with great care. The regret, which every one must feel, that these things were not more carefully guarded fifty years ago, and thereby have made the city self-supporting by this time, ought to lead to a wholesome determination to begin now to act with more caution and prudence. The opportunity is a good one, inasmuch as a new city is being formed in which the public franchises will be of more value than ever.

The Auctioneers' Association.

At the annual meeting of the New York Real Estate Auctioneers' Association, held on Monday, at No. 111 Broadway, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, James L. Wells; Vice-President, Morris Wilkins; Treasurer, William M. Ryan; Secretary, D. Phoenix Ingraham. Executive Committee, Louis Mesier, Peter F. Meyer, Phillip A. Smyth, William F. Redmond and A. M. Arneberg. The only change made in the officers who have served for the past twelve months is the substitution of Mr. Arneberg as a member of the Executive Committee for Jere Johnson, Jr.

The New Plumbing Regulations—Washtubs.

The Department of Buildings has made the following change in the Rules and Regulations for Plumbing, Drainage, Water Supply and Ventilation of Buildings (published, with index, in our issue of October 24, 1896) in regard to the use of washtubs:

In lieu of the clause "wooden and cement washtubs are prohibited," existing in the regulations now in force, the following is inserted:

"Wooden washtubs are prohibited. Cement or artificial stone tubs will be permitted, provided the same be made in the following manner, to wit: The cement or artificial stone to be one part good Portland cement to not more than three parts crushed or broken granite, gneiss, or equally hard stone, broken to a size not larger than will go through a 1-inch ring, well tamped; each tub to be branded with the owner's name and with the absolute mixture stamped on said tub, samples of which shall be filed, and approved by this department; each compartment of the tub shall have a separate bottom outlet with a through-and-through fitting, and overflows shall be external to the tub.

"No tubs made with cinder, ashes or Rosendale cement, or any other materials than above specified, will be allowed."

Payment of Taxes.

For a New Hall of Records.

The Executive Committee, of the association recently formed to procure the erection of a new Hall of Records, have received from Corporation Counsel Scott a draft bill to secure the objects of the association. The bill provides: That a site for a new Hall of Records shall be selected by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment in the neighborhood of the county court house, but not in City Hall Park; that the building shall be fireproof and contain quarters for the Register, County Clerk and Surrogate; that the Board may purchase the necessary land at private contract, or the site may be secured by condemnation proceedings, in which case title is to vest in the city upon the appointment of the Commission of Estimate and Assessment; that the Board may employ an architect to prepare plans for the building and to supervise construction and that the cost of land and building may be met by the issue of bonds. This draft-bill has been approved by the Executive Committee and the following appointed a special committee to urge its passage by the Legislature: John D. Crimmins, S. Stanwood Menken, Douglas Robinson, John F. Doyle, Edward W. Coggeshall, Ferdinand Shack and William C. Orr.

Concerning Real Estate Agents and Brokers.

Herbert A. Sherman and Edward L. King, who, for many years, have been employed by the firm, have been admitted to partnership by Richard V. Harnett & Co.

Foremost among the active uptown brokers who have deservedly gained a position of confidence from all who have favored him with their business stands D. H. Scully, of 121st street and Lexington avenue, who, we understand, is, in order to facilitate his rapidly increasing business, to shortly open a North Side branch in the handsome Metropolis Theatre, of which he was the promoter and which promises to be a credit to the metropolis, and a pride to the residents of upper New York. Mr. Scully is a conscientious and energetic worker, and his success in handling uptown property for both seller and buyer is noteworthy.

Real Estate Market.

The sale of two important downtown parcels opportunely contributed yesterday to the total investment represented by the transactions reported for a week that contained only four working days. The interest taken in the December holiday season naturally precluded any possibility of the business accomplished aggregating a large sum. Our reports indicate $1,700,000 as the total involved in the week's purchases.

The usual Christmas week array of foreclosure sales was all that auction buyers could interest themselves in since Monday. The properties sold were not only limited in number, but unattractive as well, and the result was that plaintiffs and other parties in interest were forced to do the bidding on most of them. A single parcel, No. 206 West 142d street, put up at executor's sale on Tuesday by William M. Ryan, was the only exception in the offerings of the week, and its fate was to be withdrawn on a bid of $9,500. The postponements embraced proposed sales of the following: Nos. 294 and 296 Grand street by W. W. Fogg to Jan. 6; Nos. 54 and 56 East 3d street by Philip A. Smyth to Jan 11; No. 12 5th avenue by D. P. Ingraham & Co. to Jan. 14; a piano factory and plot on 35th and 36th streets, west of 10th avenue by Peter F. Meyer & Co. to Jan. 20; No. 318 East 109th street by Bryan L. Kennelly to Jan. 21, and Nos. 164 and 166 East 112th street by S. DeWalltearss & Co., adjourned sine die. Yesterday a sale of No. 2051 8th avenue, corner of 111th street, was similarly disposed of by Peter F. Meyer & Co., and Richard V. Harnett & Co. postponed until Jan. 7 a sale of the southwest corner of 3d avenue and 158th street.

Richard V. Harnett & Co. will sell at auction, on Tuesday next, the 29th inst., the five-story single-apartment house, No. 56 East 116th street, and on the following day, Wednesday, the 30th inst., the three-story and basement, brick dwelling, No. 319 East 58th street. Both sales will take place at the Real Estate Exchange, No. 59 Liberty street. Descriptions of the properties to be sold will be found in our business pages, or can be had, with maps, of the auctioneers, at Nos. 71 and 73 Liberty street.

James L. Wells will offer at receivers' sale, on Thursday next, the 31st inst., a valuable factory property and lease of store building, in the Real Estate Salesroom, No. 111 Broadway. The property is that in which the Weber Piano Company lately carried on their business. The factory is located on the northeast corner of Seventh avenue and 17th street, and the leasehold on the southwest corner of Fifth avenue and 16th street. Their situation and close proximity make them desirable either together or separately. Description of each will be found in our advertising pages, and it will be seen that these offerings include a good deal in the way of furniture and fittings. The following will supply maps and full particulars upon application: William Foster, Receiver Weber Piano Co., No. 108 Fifth avenue; Havens & Beebe, Attorneys, No. 18 Wall street, and the auctioneer, No. 59 Liberty street.

Adrian H. Muller & Son announce that they will sell at auction—Louis Mesier, auctioneer—by order of the heirs of Lorillard Spencer, deceased, the northeast corner of 5th avenue and East 16th street. This very valuable property fronts 49 feet on the avenue and 116.10 on the street, with an "L" 25x92 adjoining on the latter. The existing improvements consist of a three-story brownstone dwelling and a two-story brick stable. The sale will take place in the Real Estate Salesroom, No. 111 Broadway, on the 20th prox. S. Frederick Kernochan, at No. 44 Pine street, and the auctioneer, at No. 24 Pine street, will furnish maps and particulars on application.

Attention is called to the inquiry of "Charles" for corner store and other business property in New York City that will be found in our advertising pages.

Alfred Roe, trustee, of Nos. 156 and 158 Broadway, offers for lease the very desirable property on 41st street, between Broadway and 7th avenue, of which map will be found in his announcement in our business pages.

Broker Froehlich, who negotiated the sale to Pizer Bros. of the block front on Lexington avenue, between 79th and 80th streets, informs us that the contract price is $91,750. An offer of $90,000 for the property was refused not long since by Mr. Nichols, the owner and seller. The sale was mentioned last week.

The Committee on Sites of the Board of Education decided on Wednesday to purchase the Astor lots, 199.10x110, comprising the block front on the west side of 5th avenue, between 129th and 130th streets, as a site for a new school house.

The official filings of Wednesday disclosed a deal, the particulars of which were made to do service as news by one of the evening papers of that day, and by the dailies of Thursday morning. Even at that, their statements of facts were a little mixed. Our transcripts of the records show that the deal involved two trades. The first was between the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. and Walworth Ward, representing the W. J. Merritt Company. Through it the insurance company disposed of the seven-story Metropolitan apartment, 100.8x100, on the southwest corner of the Boulevard and 88th street, and received in exchange the new seven-story Wellesley apartment house, 102.2x127.5 on the northeast corner of West End avenue and 81st street, Mrs. Armintha Merritt taking a lease of the latter for 10⅛ years at $25,575 per annum. The second trade was between Mr. Ward and the heirs of the late John G. Weaver. Through it the "Metropolitan" was exchanged at $450,000 for the old Ocean House erty, Newport, R. I., accepted at $225,000. C. E. Harrell negotiated the second trade.

Sonn Bros. have sold to S. C. Mooney, at $20,000, the new five-story brick single flat with lot, 18.9x100.11, No. 16 East 113th street.

NORTH SIDE.

Alfred E. Marling has sold, at an advance, the plot, 118.5x65.4x100x128.10, on 205th street, north of Perry avenue, which he bought for $925, at the Travers estate auction on December 3; also, four lots on Webster avenue, east of Woodlawn road, purchased for $3,315 at the same sale.

C. E. Randrupp has sold for Caleb E. Garey the two-story frame house with plot, 50x110, No. 1684 Washington avenue, near 173d street, to Jacob Rutz for $8,500.

Tanenbaum has leased for the Weller estate the building No. 713 Broadway, corner of Washington place, for a term of years, to Julius Kamsler, who will occupy the premises for restaurant purposes after he makes extensive alterations. It consists of a plot 102x140, covered with buildings. The A. B. S., General Manager of the stables of the Brooklyn Transportation Co., limited, where 55,000 square feet of Kosmocrete floors were laid.

The New Index for Vol. LVIII.

The index to the Record and Guide for the last six months of 1896 will contain the Conveyances, Leases, Mortgages, Buildings and Sales of the week, or the Auction Sales held at the two salesrooms.

In view of the fact that so many conveyances nowadays are recorded at a nominal consideration, we believe that the indexing of the auction sales will be appreciated, because they not only tell the price at which property is actually selling, but they also indicate, as far as possible, what the property is liable to bring in the open market, or at forced sale. The index will be ready for delivery on January 16, and subscribers wishing it should send in their orders at once. The price, $1.00, is the same as heretofore.

Business doesn't improve as rapidly as many expected. Trade drags. The trouble with those who are disappointed on this account is: they look for too much in a short space of time. Business has been out of gear for several years past. To get the wheels in order requires some time. Just as bad business didn't come in a day or strike all trades simultaneously, neither will good business spring up over night so that all will be rushed the next day. Good times grow. They are growing now in the Building lines. Investors and real estate owners are talking with bankers and architects—in short, taking the preliminary steps. The actual work of construction will come later. Are you watching this, so that no chance for profit slips by you? Or will you wake up next spring when those who have been more alert than you have got ahead of you? For an office boy's wages you can have the entire field covered for you daily, and every possible job where you can sell your goods reported to you with all names and addresses and other information. This is business on modern methods. No trouble to you. The market is put before you every day so that you can direct all energy to the getting of trade. The service covers practically all the United States. We shall be glad to explain the matter to you. Write to The F. W. Dodge Co. (Incorporated), Cammeyer Building, southeast corner of Sixth avenue and 20th street.

CONVEYANCES.

Wherever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it.

The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the Deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

Mortgages against 23d and 24th Ward properties will be found all together at the foot of this list.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Wherever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for further particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET

NEW YORK.

BRICK.—There has been a tame market during the past week. Arrivals have been moderate, and about 35 barges have been placed under cover to supply the winter trade. It is expected that the total number of barges to be put under cover will amount to at least fifty barges. Shipments from above Newburg have ceased for the season. There has been very little call for supplies, as dealers have fairly large stocks on hand and have been indifferent buyers, consequently sellers, to move supplies, have found it necessary in many instances to shade prices slightly, particularly on the low grades, and the inside price has been lowered to $3.75. The range of values for the ordinary grades has been from $3.75 to $4.12½, and the better grades have sold at $4.25@4.75. Desirable grades of pale brick have met with a fairly quick sale at $2, but the poorer grades have not been wanted, and have been quoted at $1.50@1.75. Offerings of Jersey brick have been limited, but demand has been light and prices have been quoted unchanged and steady at $4.00@4.25, according to quality.

IRON AND STEEL.—There has been a slow market for pig iron, and no changes have been made in quoted prices, while business has been transacted quietly at 25@50c. per ton below quotations. We quote at $12.50@13.00 per ton for No. 1 X foundry, $12.00@12.50 for No. 2 X do., $11.50@12.00 for No. 2 plain, and $11.00@11.50 for Gray Forge. Demand for old material has been quiet, but prices have been quoted unchanged and steady. We quote at $12.50@13.00 for old iron rails; $11.00@11.50 for No. 1 wrought scrap; $11.00@11.50 for cast scrap; $10.50@11.50 for old car wheels, and $6.00@9.00 for borings, stove plate, etc. A moderate inquiry has been reported for manufactured iron, and prices have been unchanged and steady. There has been a reduction of $3 per ton in the price for steel rails to $25 f. o. b. mill.

LATH.—There has been an advance in values. Demand has not been large, but supplies at hand have been small, as arrivals have been limited almost exclusively to deck load lots, and as the supply on the way, it was estimated, would not exceed 2,000,000 lath, and indications are that shipments for the remainder of the season will be light, sellers advanced their views to $1.60, at which price sales have been made, and at the close the market was quoted firm.

LUMBER.—There has continued a quiet market during the past week. The trade generally has taken on a holiday appearance, and the few sales have been made of the hand-to-mouth order. The question of tariff has continued to be a topic of deep interest, and a report from South stated that a meeting of the yellow pine manufacturers was held at Savannah early in the week, and that the sentiment was strongly in favor of the restoration of the tariff of 1882 of $2 per thousand.

The position of the market for Eastern spruce has not changed in any important particular. Only a very moderate amount of business has been transacted, as offerings have been small, the supplies coming forward having been light, and the sales made have been at full values, narrow timber selling at $13.50@14.50 and wide at $15.00@16.00. West Virginia spruce has sold in car load lots at steady prices, and State spruce has had some call at unchanged values.

No changes have occurred in the market for white, yellow and North Carolina pines. The volume of business transacted has been small, as buyers have withdrawn from the market until after the turn of the year. Sellers, however, have shown no anxiety to make sales, as they anticipate a fairly good business with the opening of the spring trade, and have held prices with a fair showing of firmness.

Existing conditions in the market for hemlock have undergone no changes worthy of comment. Business has been quiet, as buyers have not been disposed to enter into new trade until after the first of the new year. Advices from the mills have continued firm, and the general market has appeared to be in a healthy position. Cypress has received little attention, but there has been no supplies pressing on the market, as sellers anticipate a fair spring trade and have held steady in their views.

The hardwood market has shown a fairly firm tone. The volume of business transacted has been small, as buyers naturally have not shown a disposition to open new trades now that the holiday season is at hand. The prospects for the new spring trade are considered favorable. It is expected that there will be an increased call for supplies from the building trade, and furniture manufacturers and other consumers, it is thought, will be better buyers.

The Mississippi Valley "Lumberman" says:

"The logging industry in the northern woods is now in as full swing as the weather conditions will permit. For cutting and skidding the weather has been all that could be desired, but the hauling is being retarded by the fact that the roads are not in good condition. Heavy snow came before the ground was sufficiently frozen for a foundation for hauling, and now that the weather has warmed up again, and the snow in a measure disappeared, cold weather is still in demand to put the roads in proper shape."

The Northwestern "Lumberman" says.

"There is another call for long suffering lumbermen to draw on their stock of patience. The demand for lumber has subsided, as it usually does at this period, and it will not revive until the holidays are over, and conditions of the new year's business shall begin to develop. Considerable disappointment is being expressed because there is not more interest and energy displayed in the line of preparations for new undertakings. After election there was a fair degree of awakening from the dullness of the previous months. Confidence in monetary matters had been restored and a cheerful mood pervaded the entire lumber business. Holders of lumber were so satisfied with the outlook that slight advances of prices were declared, and there was a hard holding for such prices. For a time there was sufficient inquiry and actual increase of business to encourage the belief that the gain would be steady, and that it would scarcely halt even for the holiday period. Much stress was laid on the probability that there would be a heavy buying of stocks for the purpose of forestalling a sharp rise in prices later on. It was thought, also, that there would be a large measure of revival in manufacturing lines, which would necessitate a liberal buying of lumber, because stocks in the hands of consumers were small; that there would be a new start in heavy building by manufacturers, the railroads, car factories, and many largely operating interests who had, since the panic, delayed improvements. To a degree all these things have been realized, but to a less extent than was anticipated. Within the current month there has been a subsidence of energy in affairs. There still is manifest much caution about embarking in new investments and enterprises. The disposition seems to be to wait until the new year for developments. It seems that we are to have a winter quietude after all, and that it is to be as pronounced as it customarily is. There is to be almost an abandonment of any effort to push business during the holidays. The lapse, under the circumstances, is rather peculiar, and causes some surprised comment. It seems as if there should be some interest maintained in the preliminaries of future business, but little of it is observable. Yet the expectation for next year is maintained. It seems to have been resolved to wait until after the holidays, and then renew effort. It is claimed on all hands that there is a good deal of inquiry, but it does not take the form of definite propositions. This tenative inquiry is taken as an evidence that there is a general expectation of business after the first of the year, and that the inquirers know fairly well where it is coming from. The architects and contractors all say that there is to be a large amount of building next year. Other classes of consumers take a like view. For this reason producers and dealers have something on which to hang a hope for coming business.

"It is evident that many important matters must be settled before business in all lines can be readjusted on a normal basis. The past three years of depression have financially crippled many enterprises, firms, companies, and individuals. They hung on until after election; now they are enduring until after the first of the year. They must make settlements. Some will fail; others will adjust their indebtedness so as to go on; others will change the personnel of partnerships; in case of companies, there will be reorganizations. There is more than the usual amount of such settlement and readjustment to be done at the end of this year. Without doubt the burden of this has begun to be felt to a serious degree. Of course it involves some hazard to existing credits. Men cannot determine just now what is to happen between the present date and Jan. 10 to 15. There are many things to be developed. On this account there is a disposition to wait for the outturn of events which are not more or less in obscurity.

"It is well that this state of affairs has come in the holiday period, when quietude is natural, for it will cause less comment than it otherwise would. It is clearly evident that there will be no enlargement of business until well into January, and that thereafter much will depend on now undeveloped conditions. From all evidences in sight it seems as if there would be a gain in the demand for lumber early in the new year, with a gradual, though not phenomenal, increase as the season advances. If only this condition shall be realize it will restore thrift and profit to the lumber trade, because stocks on hand have been much restricted by moderate production.

"Reports from the pine regions of northern Wisconsin are to the effect that logging conditions ar in fairly good shape. After passing north of a line, east and west, drawn through the country about the latitude of Rhinelander, the swamps are well frozen, and there is from ten to twelve inches of snow. The heavy rains early in the month filled up the low grounds with water, and the subsequent freeze made ideal conditions for hauling.

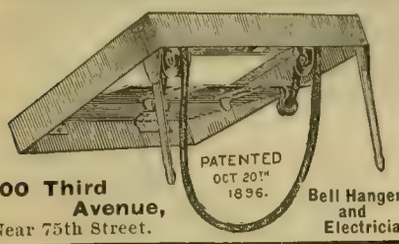
The later moderate weather has not impaired the ice and frozen land in that region to any appreciable extent. It snows a little frequently, which keeps the roads in good condition, so that excellent work is being done in skidding and hauling."

METALS.—The market for ingot copper has been quiet, and no changes of importance have occurred in values, closing at 11⅜@11½c. for Lake and 11@11¼c. for other descriptions. Exports thus far this year are reported at 118,042 tons, against 63,837 tons for the entire year of 1895, and 74,544 tons for 1894. Manufactured copper has been quiet but steady. We quote: For sheets, 32x72 ins. and 36x96 ins., 16@25c. as to weight; 30x longer than 96 ins., 16@19c.; do 36 x72 ins.,16@26c.; 36x96 ins., 16@25c.; 36x120 ins., 16@26c.; 48x96 ins., 16@24c.; 48x120 ins., 16@22c.; 36x longer than 120 ins., 16@18c.; 48x 72 ins., 16@26c.; 48x longer than 120 ins.,16@22c; 60x72 ins., 16@27c.; 60x96 ins., 16@25c.; 60x120 ins., 16@22c.; 60x longer than 120 ins., 16@24c.; 72x96 ins., 16@24c.; 72x144 ins., 16@26c.; 72x longer than 144 ins., 17@24c.; 108x120 ins., 17@ 25c.; 108x longer than 128 ins., 19@20c.; wider than 108x144 ins., 20@22c.; wider than 108 and longer than 144 ins., 21@24c. Bolt copper ⅜-in. diameter and over, 16c. Circles, segments and pattern sheets, 60 ins. diameter and less, 3c. above prices of sheets of same thickness; circles 60 to 90 do., 4c. do.; circles 96 do. and over, 5c. do. Cold or hard rolled copper, 1@2c. per lb. above the foregoing prices. All polished copper 1c. per lb. advance over cold rolled copper, when 20 ins. wide and under, and 2c. advance when more than 20 ins. wide. Copper bottoms, 20@26c. per lb. There has been an advance in the market for pig lead, in response to stronger Western advices, but demand has been quiet. The close was at 3.05@3.07½c. for domestic.

There was an easier turn to the market for Straits tin, but subsequently there was a recovery, and the close was steady at 12.90@13c. for five-ton lots f. o. b. The demand for tin plates has been quiet, and for American there has been an easy market. Foreign makes have been scarce on the spot and held steady. We quote as follows: I. C. charcoal, Melyn grade, $4.62½; Allaway grade, $3.90. Allaway grade I. X., $4.70; charcoal terne, M. F. grade, 14x20, $5.80@5.90; M. F. grade, 20x28, $11.60@11.70; Worcester grade,14x20, $4.00@4.05; 20x28, $8.00@8.05; American coke tin, 14x20, $3.30@3.65. American charcoal terne, 14x20, $3.25@3.50, and 20x28, $6.50@7.00; I. C. coke, Bessemer steel, heavy, $3.60@3.90; Bessemer steel, light, 14x20, $3.40@3.55.



NAILS.—The changes in the market for cut and wire nails have been few and unimportant. A moderate volume of business has been transacted, but it has been comprised almost exclusively of small orders to supply immediate wants. The large trade have been holding back, as they have been of the impression that open competition will ultimately result in lower prices, and consequently have been disposed to hold aloof and await developments. We quote cut nails at $1.40@1.45 per keg for car lots at mill, $1.55 per keg for small parcels from dock and $1.65 from store. Wire, $1.50@1.55 per keg for carload lots at mill, $1.70 for car lots from dock and $1.80 from store.

PAINTS, OILS, ETC.—The market for paint has been quiet, as the trade generally has shown a disposition to hold off until after the turn of the year; prices have shown no changes and the tone has continued generally steady and in instances firmness has been shown. White lead, both dry and in oil, has had only a limited call, but as there has been no pressure to sell, values have been well maintained. Red lead has received some attention, and the few sales made have been at full values. Litharge has been held at firm prices, and a limited number of inquiries have been received from glass and rubber manufacturers. Zincs have been steady. A fair sized contract has been made in colors with one of the large consumers, but particulars have not been made public. The Association figures on lead last announced are as follows, subject to change without notice: Pure white lead, dry or in oil, red lead and litharge in kegs, in lots of 500 lbs. and over, 5¾c.; red lead and litharge in barrels and half barrels, ¼c. per lb. less than the price in kegs; white lead (cases), 1c. per lb. over price in kegs; white lead in 25-lb. tin pails (packed in 100-lb. or 200-lb. cases), 1½c. per lb. over price in kegs; white lead, assorted in 1-lb., 2-lb., 3-lb., and 5-lb. cans (packed in 100 or 200-lb. cases), 1½c. per lb. over price in kegs. Terms: On lots of 500 lbs. and over, 60 days, or 2 per cent discount for cash, if paid within 15 days from date of invoice f. o. b. at New York. Special prices for dry white lead in barrels. Quantities: To make either of above assorted quantities and assortments of packages either or all of the articles may be counted. The above prices and terms supersede all previous prices and terms by this company. No changes have occurred in the prices for linseed oil. The amount of business transacted has continued small, as the few orders received have been limited to small peddling orders to supply immediate wants. There has been a decline of about 3c. per bushel in the price for flaxseed, and this has had a tendency to give a slightly easier tone to the market. Crushers, however, do not expect a further reduction of importance in values, and are disposed to anticipate a fair trade following the turn of the year. At this writing American city crushed was quoted at 33c. in five-bbl. lots or over, and 34c. for less than five barrels; boiled was at 35 and 36c. Calcutta has been firm, but quiet, at 50c. Foreign advices have reported the market for linseed as firmer. There has continued a quiet market for Western crushed oil, but as the offerings have been light, values have held fairly steady at 31@32c. There have been no changes in the values for spirits turpentine, but there has been a much better undertone to the market and a moderate amount of business has been transacted, with indications that after the turn of the year there will be a fairly brisk call for supplies, as both canners and varnish makers have latterly been giving increased attention to the situation of the market, and at 27¼c. for machines have been willing to take fairly large quantities. Sales of a few hundred barrels have been made at 27½c. Regulars have been steady at 26¾c., and Old Dominions at 26½c. Southern advices have reported steady markets. We quote at 26½c@29c. per gallon, according to time and place of delivery, quantity, style of package, etc.

TAR AND PITCH.—The market for tar has been steady. A limited amount of business has been transacted, as a number of small jobbing orders have been received, and prices have been without changes. Pitch has had only a very limited call, but has held steady in value. We quote tar at $1.75@1.80 in pine or Wilmington barrels, $2.50 in pork barrels, and $3.50 in oil barrels. Pitch, $1.80@1.90.

LUMBER.

Appended quotations are based almost wholly upon prices obtained for goods from first hands. Yard rates necessarily range much higher owing to the expenses attending sorting out and grading cargo and even car lots, besides which must be added the cost of handling and carrying until consumers are ready to invest. Terms of sale also prove important factors, and altogether it is impossible to give a line of retail quotations thoroughly reliable in character.

THE LAWYERS' SURETY COMPANY OF NEW YORK

32, 34 AND 36 LIBERTY STREET, The Mutual Life Building

This is the only Company confining its business exclusively to Bonds and undertakings required by the Courts. It does not insure the fidelity of employees, because it is impracticable for them to indemnify the Company against loss.

The law allows fiduciaries to include in their accounts, as an administrative expense, the fee charged by this company for suretyship upon their bonds, which are accepted by the Courts in place of two or more individual bondsmen.
